

THE CRIMSON

1946

EAST PROVIDENCE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
EAST PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

Starring

MISS KATHERINE PERKINS

Our starlet, Katherine Perkins, symbolizes all that we wish to attain in the play of life before the scrutinizing audience of the American public.

Miss Perkins has been, and always will be, respectfully applauded for her ability to transmit to the younger generation the finest in the philosophy of life—a rare talent indeed.

Your audience, better known to you as students, recognizes your ability as a grand trouper in that never ending play of education and your inspiration to us that “the show must go on.”

New Showing

The Faculty

Experience, knowledge, tolerance, and comradeship are but a few of the many assets of these headliners in the drama of life—commanding continuous and incessant applause.

THE CRIMSON BOARD

Now that you have all arrived at our Little Theatre off Broadway, we should like to have your attention for a few moments before the curtain rises.

We should like to let the hard-working members of our production staff know how much we appreciated their cooperation in making this presentation a success.

A great deal of credit is due to Miss Smith, our technical advisor on the production, and also to Mr. Bates, the cameraman for a number of the following scenes.

All of us whom you will see in the coming scenes should like to tell you that we have had a lot of enjoyment in the past three years in our work here, and we hope this play will be just as happy a culmination to them.

Last, but not least, we should like to express our thanks to all the teachers who have been the cause of everything we have accomplished in the past three years.

Now—the lights dim, the curtain rises, and our production begins. We hope that you will enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed producing it.

LOIS RUTH BRICKLEY

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Senior Play Prod. (3),
Crimson (3).

If awards were given for the ideal school girl of the year, Lois surely would be one of the winners. What girl hasn't envied her good scholastic record, her smart clothes, and her personality? Supporter of all social activities, Lois is a credit to the class of '46.

ANNETTE ELIZABETH BRISTOW

"Gentlemen prefer blondes." This saying certainly applies to Annette. She is one of the most popular girls in the class, always seen at the dances and other social events of the school. She also made many friends at E.P. with whom she is seen at all times.

BETTY BARBARA BROADBENT

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Riding (2), Bowling (3), Senior Play Prod. (3),
Bond Rep. (1).

Quiet did you say? I'm sure you must be mistaken, for Betty is the life of any party. While many seniors sit at home pondering over their Review Math, Bett just zips through her work, problems and all. She is also an accomplished rider and is active as a member of Hi-Tri.

CHRISTOPHER BRODERICK

Chris can usually be seen walking the halls of E.P. with Bob, Ray, Pat or Claire depending on what his mood is at the moment, Maplehurst would be an extremely dull place if Chris weren't there making everyone laugh and breaking the monotony of the day in various other ways.

BEVERLY GRACE BROWN

Lib. Aux. (1-2-3).

Bev hails from Riverside and can be seen every morning hopping off the bus with her many friends. When you are bewildered in the library, Bev, who is a member of the Library Auxiliary, is always willing to help you find the book you desire.

BETTY BROWNELL

Honor Society, Senior Play Prod. (3), Bowling (2-3), Treas. (2),
Crimson (3).

Did you ever see a dream walking? Betty is the type of girl people dream about but seldom find. We of East Providence are the lucky ones to find her, although we're not the only ones that think she is rather wonderful. Her cute ways and soft voice have attracted many.

PRISCILLA WARREN BECK

Here we have Priscilla, our athletic red-head from Seekonk. We are glad to say that her bright colored hair does not indicate a hot temper, for Priscilla is a friendly and cheerful student. Priscilla manages to attend most of our sports and social events and always seems to be enjoying them.

CLAIRE LEDA BENICKI

Swimming (1), Ki-Hi-Tri (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Townie (3).

Claire has been a friend to many and has had many friends during her stay at E.P. Her good work on the Townie has helped to make it a success. Claire would like to attend a school of Journalism. We know that any newspaper would welcome her articles.

EDYTHE IRENE BIDDLE

This fair maiden from our good neighbor, Riverside, is brimming over with fun. In her spare time she acts as secretary for a veterinarian, but I hear that her future lies not only in secretarial work. A certain hockey player and Edythe make a happy-go-lucky couple.

JEANNE ALBERTA BLOMSTEDT

Jeanne is a very likeable girl with a wonderful disposition and personality. She is quiet one moment but is participating in classroom mischief or humor the next. With these qualities, Jeanne, who hopes to become a nurse, is certain to win friends and influence people.

ETHEL BRADLEY

Tall, slim, brown-eyed Ethel is a quiet member of the class, proving at times a welcome change from too many chatterboxes. She is sincere at all times, and she is a most industrious student. Did anyone ever see her in class unprepared or ill at ease because of work undone?

GEORGE OLIVER BREAUT

Who would ever guess that this dark-haired lad with the quiet nature is a clever mechanic? It has been said that George can fix anything from a roller skate to an airplane. If this is his chosen work, we can all be sure that at it he will be a success.

BETTY HELEN AYERS

Our beloved Betty—a cute gal with a cute personality—has roamed E.P. corridors for the last three years. A happy-go-lucky smile is always ready to greet you when Bet is around. She's been absent quite a bit and we've always welcomed her upon her return.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH BALLARD

Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (3).

This pleasing member of the senior class is known to all of us as Katie. Katie's personality and sense of humor have greatly entertained all of us who are lucky enough to be numbered among her friends. If someone should say to you, "May I have your baby picture for the Crimson," it's probably Katie on the job.

MARY BARBUSCIO

Mary is one of the song birds of the school. When the chorus sings, she's sure to be there with a song in her heart and laughter in her eyes. Her cheerful ways have brought her many friends. Just stay as you are, Mary, and you're sure to be a success.

FRED BARKER

Honor Society, Wrestling (1-2-3), Track (1-2-3), Cross C. Mgr. (3), Crimson (3), Nom. Com. (3), Class Treas. (3), Senior Play (3).

Who said that muscles and brawn don't mix? Well, here is the living proof that they do. Mr. Olsen once said he would like to give Basil an hour to lecture to his senior history class on English literature. Basil intends to increase his mentality by going to that Mecca of education, M.I.T.

GEORGE EVERETT BARR

Football (2-3).

George made himself famous during football season by his long passes which were always picking up first downs for the team. This good-looking boy from Philipsdale has really made a hit with the fellows and girls here at East Providence with a laugh and maybe a joke now and then.

ALBERT BAUTISTA

Al is a wise individual, as he came to E.P. from La Salle. His black, wavy hair has made quite a hit with the girls and his cheerful disposition a hit with the boys. We haven't seen as much of him as we'd like; he hasn't cared too much about our company, evidently.

HELEN FRANCES ANDERSON

Honor Society, Band (1), Skating Club (1), Swimming (1-3),
Bowling (1-2-3).

If you want to have an average of ninety-nine in history and ninety in many other subjects call on Helen. Although she has had considerable illness during her senior year, she manages to keep her name on the Honor Roll. She and a certain Billie attend almost all of our dances.

LEROY FRANCIS ANDERSON

In many ways LeRoy has been an asset to our class. We all know that as a member of our track team, as one of the cast of the Senior Play, and as a student of East Providence, he has come through with flying colors. His ability to play the piano has often made school assemblies more pleasant, and for these many reasons this lad will be missed in the halls of E.P.

STANLEY BURTON ANDERSON

Senior Play (3).

Stan, with his quiet sense of humor and his serious application to work is an asset to our class. He has been an enthusiastic supporter of social and sport events. Stan surprised us one morning with a solo in assembly. Why did you keep it a secret so long, Stan?

ELEANOR VIRGINIA ANDRE

Eleanor is one of the smaller members of the senior class. Her quiet manners and dependability have made her an asset to E.P. She is known and envied for her wavy hair and pretty clothes. Eleanor can often be seen in the corridors talking and laughing with her many friends.

EMMA ISABEL ANDREWS

Chorus (3), Ice Skating (1).

Emma is one of Seekonk's many pretty girls. She is the owner of a merry laugh and pretty clothes. Emma is well liked for her friendliness towards others. She is one of the members of E.P.s chorus. Emma is a great fan for roller skating.

EDMUND GRANVILLE ARNOLD

Skating (1-2), Football (3), Baseball (2-3), Class Treas. (2).

If you see a light-haired boy coming down the corridor with a certain young lady beside him, you'll know it's Bucky. He is a perfect sport and is always ready for a good time. He has contributed much to our baseball and football teams for the last two years.

LILLIAN ROSELTHA BURDICK

Band (1), Senior Play Prod. (3), Bond Rep. (1), Skating (2),
Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3).

Lil is a happy-go-lucky girl who has shown her artistic ability in the art room of E.P. We usually visualize her trying to cope with Spanish and trying not to forget the lesson before leaving the class. At the present time, Lil's outstanding desire is to become a nurse.

HENRY BEHRENS BUTTS

Honor Society, J. V. Basketball (1-2), Cross C. (2), Basketball (3),
Hi-Y (2-3), Model Congress (2), Class President (2),
Soc. Com. (3).

Hank is a likeable young fellow who is very popular with the students of old E.P. He has made a name for himself as a varsity member of the basketball team and also as a renowned social lion. Henry is our idea of a well-rounded student, for he is a first rate athlete and a good student.

JEAN MARIE CABRAL

Jean always has a smile for everyone. Her pleasing personality and attractiveness have won her many friends. She always does well in her studies as well as in her outside activities. Quietness and a keen sense of humor are only two of Jean's attractions, which will bring her success in the future.

ROBERT CADY

Don't let Robert's quiet manner fool you; underneath he is full of fun, and, as his many friends know, he always enjoys a good time. He has depended on his Chevvy to get him to school every morning. Why not put a clock and a radio in your car, Robert?

JEANNE MARIE CAHILL

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Sec. (3), Nom. Com. (3), Soc. Com. (2-3),
Chairman (3), Bowling (3), Senior Play (3).

Here is our own Judy in the senior play. Jeanne was the capable actress who stole the play when it was presented last year. Jeanne greets all her pals with a soft, cheery "Hello" when she meets them in the corridors. Someone like Jeanne brightens up anyone's somber thoughts.

MARY ANN CAMERON

Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Soc. Com. (2-3), Nom. Com. (3), Class
Sec. (3), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3).

"Delightful to look at and charming to know" doesn't do justice to Mac, for she is cute and friendly to all. Her cheerfulness and laughter have helped her to fill the offices of senior class secretary and chairman of the Hi-Tri social committee exceptionally well.

LEO JOSEPH CAMPBELL

Band (2-3), Orchestra (3).

Leo's wavy hair has been the envy of most of the girls. Leo has added a lot of life to his classes with his many witty remarks. A member of the band, he has been an ardent supporter of E.P.'s many activities. We will remember your sociable disposition, Lee.

FLORENCE ISABEL CAREY

Crimson (3).

Petite, dainty, sparkling-eyed Flossie with her gorgeous red hair is a familiar figure to us all. She is an energetic dynamo, always ready for action. There is something almost elfin about her engaging smile. What an addition to a business office! But how can anyone work when he could look at Flossie?

PAUL CAREY

Cross County (3), Track (2-3), Band (1-2-3), Hi-Y (1), Crimson (3), Senior Play (3), Cap and Gown (3), Orchestra (1-2).

Paul is a valuable asset to the track team, the cross country quintet, and home room 5. Paul is the type of man who takes life easily and doesn't seem to see anything serious about it. In the language of the street corner riff raff, Paul is classed as a "hot-sketch."

FLORENCE MARION CARLSON

Honor Society, Swimming (1).

Flossie, fun loving and studious, too, comes to us from See-konk. Flossie is the girl who wants to be a doctor. She should certainly succeed in this profession with her high marks and wonderful disposition. We'll be seeing you at your office some day, Dr. Carlson.

RAYMOND HARRY CARLSON

Ray is the lucky lad from Riverside whom you often see driving a smart car through the streets of E.P. His destination seems to be Clark College. His friends can verify our statement that he is a loyal friend to all who know him.

GEORGE WILLIAM CARPENTER

Have you seen a tall, slim, blond haired fellow going into Room 2 five days a week? That's George—quiet in school but full of fun outside. Even though he works on an ice truck after school, he's warm and friendly in dealing with his friends. Clear going, George.

LEON GEORGE CARPENTER

Beau Brummel, Casanova, Don Juan, Leon Carpenter—take your pick; they're all great lovers. You all know Leon as the blond track man with so many feminine admirers. During his leisure moments, Leon finds time to study his algebra and physics, for he plans to attend good old Brown when he graduates.

PHYLLIS GRACE CHACE

Honor Society, Ring Com. (2), Senior Play Prod. (3).

The charming blond young lady who seems to miss her "other-half" this year, is none other than our Phyllis. She is present at all the social events and sports activities surrounded by a bevy of friends and admirers. Her sense of humor and her good nature make Phyllis a wonderful person to know.

ANNA MILDRED CHARVES

Do you hear a chuckle, then a burst of laughter? That's Anna. To hear Anna laugh, you'd have to laugh too. Anna is a clever artist and a serious student. Anna will be leaving many friends when she leaves E.P. So long, Anna.

BARBARA BEDA CHEEL

Skating Club (1).

Barbara is another one of E.P.'s well-known redheads. Full of ambition, she was a prominent member of the trig class of room 4. We say "prominent" because she was the only female member. From her C.A.P. uniform, we've guessed that one of her outside interests is aviation.

ELEANOR FRANCES CHRISTIE

Ice Skating (1-2), Vice Pres. (2), Bowling (1), Chorus (3),
Crimson (3).

We all know where Eleanor's heart lies, for haven't we seen that diamond sparkling on the third finger of her left hand? This girl has everything, pretty blond hair, blue eyes, personality, and a man named Roy. Her future is planned, and we all wish her luck and happiness.

HERBERT NEWTON CLARKE

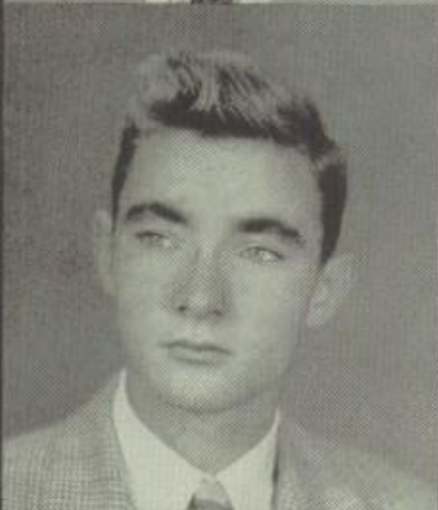

Herbert is a quiet, good-looking fellow. Isn't that all that counts, girls? Herbert is well liked by all at E.P. and will be greatly missed when he leaves. May your reserved manner and good looks carry you through the years.

RICHARD JOSEPH COELHO

Nothing ever seems to bother Dick. His good looks and curly hair and freckles have attracted many friends to him. Who hasn't seen his sketches of airplanes? Some day this hobby will undoubtedly prove very profitable.

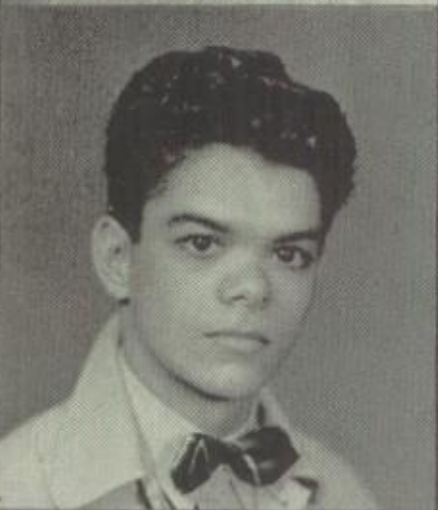

JOHN CONLEY

Jackie is a quiet fellow once in a while. The rest of the time he spends having fun entertaining his classmates and his teachers. If you were to look at Jackie for the first time, you'd think he was the shy type. Don't let appearances fool you, however.

MARY ANTONIA COPPOLELLI

Mary's gleaming black hair first attracted us to her. Later we found her personality and her charm equally attractive. Although we doubt that Mary will ever become one of Mrs. McCullough's proteges, we have found her to be a good sport and eager to join in any classroom pranks.

CHARLES COROLLA

Swimming (3), Track (2), Wrestling (3), Orchestra (1-2-3).

What's that dazzling light that's moving down the corridor? Oh! that's Chuck Corolla with his newest bow tie. Chuck is one of the smaller members of our illustrious class. He weighs in the vicinity of 100 lbs. He certainly is an example of compressed energy.

RALPH SUFFERN COSTA

Hockey (1-2-3), Band (1-2-3), Track (2-3), Orchestra (1-2),
Nom. Com. (3).

Ralphie is the star hockey player who pulled East Providence out of a rut and gave us a chance for the playoffs. Ralph is a comedian at heart and delights in breaking up the routine of the day with some old chestnut told whenever someone will listen to him.

HERBERT EVERETT CUSHING

Hi-Y (1-2-3), Soc. Com. (2), Wrestling (3), Senior Play (3).

Cooky is that tall, dark, curly-haired lad, who is known and liked by everyone, both male and female. (In fact we happen to know he's quite a Casanova.) A sports enthusiast, Cooky never misses a game and is a prominent member of our wrestling team.

RUDOLPH D'AMICO

Danny has a way of making friends by his pleasant smile. There aren't many games that pass without Danny's being there. If you want to know what type of shoes to buy, just consult him at the Hollywood Shoe Store. Danny always manages to get his home work in on time.

GLORIA DARLING

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Pres. (3), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Townie (3), Ring Com. (3), Soc. Com. (3), Bowling (2-3).

Gloria with her pretty face and sparkling eyes is one of our most popular seniors. Maybe her charming personality accounts for the fact that she is welcome in any group, large or small. We could go on and on and still not do justice to one who has done so much in her high school career.

LORA DIANA DAUBNEY

Bowling (2), Assembly Com. (3), Crimson (3), Townie (3).

Di, better known to her friends as "Goat," is one of the luckier gals in our class, having been blessed with natural curly hair. Full of pep, vim, and vigor, Di is never without something to do. As Editor-in-Chief of the Townie, Diana did a grand job.

VIRGINIA DAVIS

Ginny, a well-known member of our class, has dark hair and eyes which make her very pleasing to look at, as a certain someone in the Navy well knows. Ginny is a very active sergeant in the East Providence C.A.P. and, from all reports, is really quite easy on those she outranks.

CAROLINE MARTHA DECATUR

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Nom. Com. (2), Assembly Com. (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Asst. Bus. Mgr. (3).

"Sugar and spice and everything nice, that's what little girls are made of." This certainly applies to Kay, as she, with her sunny hair, delightful complexion, and gay personality never fails to brighten up any group. Too bad fellows, her main interest is deep in the heart of New Hampshire.

ROBERT DELANEY

When you meet Bob, he seems to be very quiet, but you soon revise your opinion of him. He does enjoy a joke when he hears one. Bob's blond hair is the envy of many a fellow in E.P. Good-looking, intelligent, and well mannered are the three adjectives that describe Bob.

OLIVE ROSE DEVALLEY

Bowling (2-3), Nom. Com. (3).

Shiny black hair, pretty eyes, dimples, and personality plus—a description of Dolly. Dolly with her friend Hope may be seen at almost any of E.P.'s varied activities, an example of her school spirit. Dolly will make an attractive secretary for some lucky business executive.

NANCY DEWHIRST

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2), Assembly Com. (3), Crimson (3), Senior Play (3).

"There will always be a Hilda"—this is the memorable line of Nancy in the senior play. There'll always be a Nancy in our hearts, for she has made many friends during her stay at E.P. With her pleasing ways we are sure she will make a lasting impression on the new friends that she will make later on in life.

RUTH DODGE

Have you seen that dark haired miss hurrying into room 6 mornings? That's Ruthie, who hails from Riverside. Like most Riverside folks she likes good times and by her winning ways usually has them. Her future may lie in Johnson and Wales Business School.

ELSIE MARGUERITE DUELL

Elsie isn't quite as noisy as a good many of us are, but she enjoys a good time as well as anyone. Her friendly smile, always beaming down on someone, her pleasant disposition, and her ability to make friends are easily recognized by us all.

RACHEL CARVER DUPOUY

Every morning and every night Rachel can be seen gracing the Seekonk bus with her presence and keeping the amorous young gentlemen at a distance in order to breathe properly. Rachel's blond hair and cheery disposition add a certain something to the monotony of the day.

ETHELYN JULIA EDDY

Honor Society.

Ethelyn, one of the quieter members of our class, is the pride and joy of all her teachers. An excellent student, Ethelyn can be depended on to give the right answers. We envy Ethelyn because she never has to use any trite excuses because of the lack of a homework paper.

JOHN THOMAS EDGE

Hi-Y (2-3), Skating (1-2), Hockey (2-3).

Johnny, a tall, good-looking fellow, is an important member of our hockey team. He is rather quiet and reserved in school and he has a tendency to do his work. Johnny finds time for numerous social activities, however. How's the gum holding out, Johnny?

NANCY ARLENE EDMONDS

Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2), Skating (1), Townie (3).

Nancy is one of the jolly members of '46 and by all means active. Her activities range from Scrap-Drives to Hi-Tri clubs with a bit of skating and journalism brought in, too. Maybe her green fingernail polish has something to do with her many friends. Here's to a future nurse!

EVELYN ENOS

First Honors, Gen. Com., Honor Society, Lib. Aux. (2-3),
Senior Play Prod (3).

Who's the smart girl with a straight A report card? Why Evelyn, of course. This has been her record all through high school. Not only her scholastic ability rates A but also her sociability—for Evelyn has made many friends these last three years. Won't she make a charming accountant?

JOSEPH PETER ESTRELLA

Although Joe appears to be very quiet, don't let him fool you. He is really full of fun, and he gets a kick out of any joke. We understand he likes art—of the Varga-girl type, though his apparent bashfulness belies this fact. One of Joe's best virtues is his loyalty to his friends.

OLGA MARY FACENDA

Honor Society, Crimson (3).

Cheerfulness is only one of Olga's assets. Her cheery smile has helped her win many friends. Olga greets everyone with a bright "hello." She hails from well-known Riverside and may be seen every morning riding with her friend Pete. Never lose your cheery ways, Olga.

MARGARET FERREIRA

Lib. Aux (1-2-3), Treas. (3).

Margaret is just a little girl, but she has a big friendly way about her. She has been a member of the Library Auxilliary for three years, and in her senior year she was elected treasurer. She likes all sports, especially bowling, in which she excels. She has been a member of C.A.P. for two years and would some day like to be a hostess on a great airline. We hope you reach this worth-while goal.

DOLORES FISCHER

Honor Society, Ki-Hi-Tri (3), Sen. Play Prod. (3), Crimson (3).

Dorrie, who comes from Rumford, is one of our most efficient little office assistants. She is a commercial student and has been on the honor roll during her stay at E.P. Dorrie's school spirit rates high, too, because she has been an ardent supporter of all social functions and sports events.

JEAN CAROL FITZGERALD

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Nom. Com. (2), Assembly Com. (3), Latin Soc. (2), Sen. Play Prod. (3).

Jean is that cute little girl seen dashing to room 2 every morning with her ever faithful friend, Caroline. One often sits and stares in awe as she explains how an original in geometry is solved. In her spare time, Jeanie manages to do quite a bit of riding and bowling.

THOMAS FLYNN

Tommy is a member of that famous trio Flynn, Sweeney and Page. Everyone enjoys this happy-go-lucky fellow because of his likeable disposition. Tommy was the very capable stage manager of our great senior play. Tommy is another Riversider who has made good in the big city.

CARANA ANN FORCIER

Carana is the girl with the fiery red hair. She is a good student and her name regularly appears on the honor roll. We've heard that she likes to sing and does so very well. Carana is rarely seen without her friend, Stevy.

BARBARA FOSTER

Sr. Hi-Tri (2-3), Crimson (3), Bowling Club (3).

Since most people enjoy a cheery hello and a few friendly words occasionally, they are sure to enjoy knowing Barbara. This Riverside miss known for her naturally wavy hair is also known for her pep and energy. You should see her rolling up her high bowling scores.

EDWARD FOSTER

Hockey (2-3), Soc. Com. (2), Hi-Y (1).

Eddie is a happy medium. He is not noisy, and yet he is far from being a wall-flower. To say that he is a good sport is to sum up Ed in a few words. He has supported all the school activities and has shown his athletic ability as a member of the hockey team.

JACQUELINE FOURNIER

Bowling (2-3), Swimming (1-3), Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3),
Senior Play Prod. (3)

Jackie's cheerful manner has enabled her to make many friends here at E.P. The girls in the senior play will gratefully remember her for the help she gave them backstage. They are not the only ones, however, as she is always ready to join any fun that is brewing.

JOHN CHARLES FRATUS

You've all wondered who that handsome fellow from room 4 is. Well, it's none other than Jack. Jack can always be found with a group of fellows busily engaged talking. His cheery disposition and broad grins will always be an asset to him.

JANET FRENCH

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Skating (1-2), Assembly Com. (3),
Townie (3), Swimming (3).

Do you remember an attractive Riverside miss being escorted through the corridors by a well-known Seekonk football player? Do you remember her as having dark hair, bright brown eyes, and an engaging smile. Then you remember Janet. Let's not forget her, as she has been a welcome addition to our class.

HELEN FURTADO

Helen, with her dark wavy hair and neat appearance, has been a good friend to many of us. Although a quiet girl she enjoys a good time. She has been a supporter of E.P.'s activities. We will remember you as a good companion and wonderful friend, Helen.

NORMA FURTADO

This pretty black-haired, brown eyed maiden's future is pretty well decided for her. You'll know why if you get a gander at the sparkler—third finger left hand from her ex-Navy man Ricky. We of "46" wish you all the luck and happiness you can possibly have, Norma.

NORMAN EDWARD GAGNON

Baseball (1-2-3), Hockey (3).

Norm is a quiet, reserved fellow in school; but out of school his personality undergoes a rapid change. Anyone who attends a hockey match soon changes his opinion of Norm. With a flash and click of skates Norm is down the ice to capture the old bacon for Alma Mater.

JOYCE GAMMON

Swimming (1), Riding (2), Nom. Com. (2), Crimson (3).

Cute, full of fun, a good student, and a wonderful friend—that's Joyce. She can usually be found with her two pals, Dot and Penny, fellow "Riversiders." Joyce often adds to the din of chatter heard on the school bus but never overdoes it.

SHIRLEY ESTELLE GOFF

Honor Society, D.A.R. Award, State D.A.R. Award, Townie (2-3), Class Sec. (2), Nom. Com. (2), Swimming (3), Bowling (2-3), Cap & Gown Com. (3), Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3).

Shirley is the pride and joy of the senior class, for she is our choice for the D.A.R. With a cheery smile and hearty hello, Shirley wins many followers and admirers. I shall always remember Shirley because she was so good at remembering the names of bones in Biology!

EDWARD GONSALVES

Eddie is a fun-loving young man who has numerous ambitions in life. He can usually be seen down in Mr. Bush's auto mechanics room tinkering with a motor or something more complicated. Eddie spends his spare time drawing airplanes. Who knows? He might design the airships of tomorrow.

ROBERT FRANCIS GORMAN

Indoor Track (2-3), Outdoor Track (2-3), Cross Country (3), Capt. (3), Soc. Com. (2).

Faster than a speeding bullet! Stronger than a locomotive! It's Bob Gorman! Bob is that handsome track star who captures the hearts of so many sophomore girls. Perhaps you heard that beautiful music issuing from Bob's mouth the nights of the Senior Play.

WALTER ROBERT GORMAN

J.V. Football (1), J.V. Basketball (2), Outdoor Track (2-3), Cross Country (3), Band (1-2-3), Assembly Com. (3), Senior Play (3), Townie (3).

Walt's name can never be mentioned without our thinking of our Track Team. Many an honor has this lad brought to himself and to dear old E.P. Besides his athletic ability he has a sense of humor envied by many. In the future, Walt, stop and remember us who knew you when—

EDWIN JOSEPH GOULD

Football (2).

Eddie is one of the quieter members in school, but outside he enjoys a lot of fun and especially good ice-skating. Ed is seldom seen without his old jalopy and a certain little blonde lassie called Marion. Eddie isn't too enthusiastic, apparently, about school work, but he gets there, nevertheless.

HELEN THERESA GRACE

Quiet and dignified is our Helen. She's a delightful person and is well liked by all. Helen is a good friend to have around and to have fun with. She always has a sweet smile for everyone and can be depended on to finish anything she sets out to do.

RUTH ELLA GREENE

Swimming (3), Ki-Hi-Tri (3), Canteen Com. (3).

Ruthie, described as having beautiful skin and flashing brown eyes, came to E.P. in her senior year. She has added much to the class of '46 by her activities scholastically and socially, and by being an ardent member of the Ki-Hi-Tri. Business School is her next stop and, we hope, a successful one.

JAMES GREGORY

Although Jimmy is occasionally quiet, he has a wonderful personality and is capable of completing various duties. He has been a great asset to the class of 1946 as he always has a worthy remark to add to any discussion. We are certainly grateful to have known Jim, one of the good-looking seniors.

EVELYN MAY GUERRA

Evelyn is a very good student. She can be seen chattering with her friends in the corridor as well as in class. Evelyn is always neat and efficient. She is a girl who is well liked and who is lots of fun. Evelyn can suit her mood to any occasion, a fact which has made her popular.

SALVATORE GUGLIELMO

Basketball (3).

Did you ever see a long shot across the floor that went right in the basket? That was Sal's. He has an eye for those spectacular baskets as he has for his friends. Well known and well liked by every one, Sal has made himself one of the "pride and joys" of the "46" class.

EDWARD HARPOOTIAN

Ed, who is called D.A. by all his friends, has made many a dull period whiz by with his humorous pranks. His sole delight seems to have been teasing people. Sometimes this has been carried too far, but on the whole, the students, at least, have appreciated him.

JANE ARDELL HARRIS

Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (3), Crimson (3).

Janie is never seen without her friends from Riverside, and she always has a smile and friendly greeting for all. Without Jane's planning, a Hi-Tri dance just wouldn't be successful. Although most of her time is spent writing to a certain someone in the Navy, she can be seen at all E.P. affairs.

MILDRED HELGERSON

Milly is the shy, quiet type of student, who is such a blessing to our overworked teachers. Millie's manner is soothing, and she possesses a gentle grace that quiets many a fevered brow. We've heard that at the present time Millie seems to be interested in the Army.

BARBARA HENRY

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Skating (1).

Barbie is one of the smallest of us but by no means the least in the possession of those qualities which go to make a really true friend. Her sunny smile, friendly manner and genial disposition are only a few of these qualities. She is rarely seen without her intimate companions Glo and Marcia from Rumford.

HELEN HERRICK

We remember Helen as the quietest of passengers on the See-konk bus, yet beneath her quietness lies a good example of what brains plus work can accomplish. The beautiful clothes that Helen wears are the result of her own handiwork. It is a pleasure to see Helen smile as her smile is a bright and cheering one.

RUSSELL DEXTER HODGEMAN

Light brown wavy hair and merry blue eyes? They belong to Russell, who is sure to be liked by everyone wherever he goes, for his cheerfulness and his accommodating nature. He, with his brothers, has already started a recording business of his own and with such ambition Russell will certainly hit the top.

ARTHUR EVERETT HOLMBERG

Art is a bit quiet, and is one of our shorter boys. His size hasn't anything to do with popularity, however, for he is well known and well liked. Most of his time is spent between Top Hill (where he is a waiter) and Charlie's Drug Store. Hope we always see you around, Art.

BARBARA LOUISE HOLMSTROM

Skating (2), Bowling (2-3).

One look at Barbara will tell you that here is a gal, full of fun, and ready to take on anything. Fond of athletics, Barbara has been a staunch supporter of our teams. Speaking of sports, we hear that she, herself, is quite a bowler.

WILLIAM BRENTON HOOKER

Hi-Y (2-3).

My, they grow them big in East Providence. Billy Boy is what you call "un homme des femmes" or in the vernacular, a ladies' man. Bill and his other scientific colleagues once attempted to make a fire extinguisher in the chem. lab. But alas! alack! it blew up and covered them with bicarbonate of soda.

NANCY ANN HOPKINS

Honor Society Sr. Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Nom. Com. (2), Bowling (3), Assembly Com. (3), Townie (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Crimson (3).

Nancy is the daughter of that famous man, our beloved truant officer. Everyone knows Hoppy, for she is one of those personality-plus girls with charms galore. She apparently has special interest in a member of our great football team; thus follows her interest in football.

WILLIAM PATRICK HOPKINS

Hockey (3).

Here's Bill, a tall good-looking member of our class, with his freckled face wearing a grin for all. His type of humor is the kind we all appreciate most in a dull classroom. Bill also gave a good account of himself on the hockey team this season.

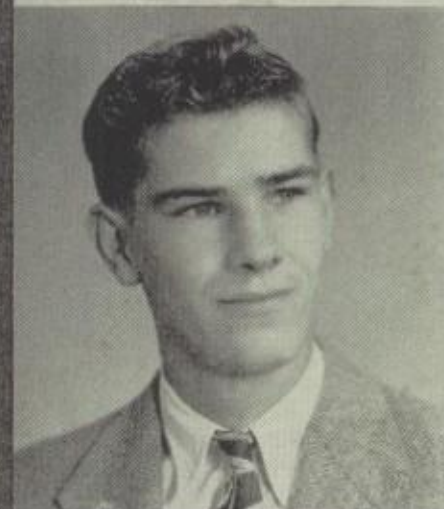

ROBERT HUNT

Cross Country (3).

Bob is one of those fellows that you see running through East Providence every morning getting in practice for the track season. Fond of sports, he's an all-round athlete, spending much of his spare time playing baseball or swinging a golf club. We hear he's also quite a swimmer.

DONALD HYMAN

Donald is seldom seen without a grin covering his entire face. Though on the chubby side, he appears to get around quite a bit. Girls don't seem to be an essential part of his life at the present, but give him time. His easy-going disposition makes everyone like him.

ALICE ISIDORO

Bowling (2-3).

Alice is a small gal with naturally wavy black hair. She has many friends and is continually making more. Out of school you'll find her working in a little shop at Six Corners with a cheerful word for everyone. Bowling and friends are her specialty. Smooth going, Alice.

HOPE ISABELLE JANSEN

Bowling (2-3), Nom. Com. (3), Soc. Com. (3), Swimming (3).

Fun-loving and popular is our Hope. She is seldom seen without a host of friends. She has been a member of the bowling club and president during her senior year—an example of her popularity. Beware, boys, her heart is promised to a certain Navy lad.

JOYCE JENKINS

Honor Society, Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Sec. (2), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Bowling (2-3), Townie (3).

How the Pepsodent people ever overlooked Joyce's smile is beyond us. Perhaps it's because they haven't reached E.P. yet. Along with that smile goes a very pleasing personality and a delightful sense of humor. Joyce has participated in many activities during her three years here, but her main interest seems to be with the Army.

LAWRENCE F. JODAT

Wrestling (1-2-3), Crosscountry (2), Senior Play (3), Townie (3).

Larry's good disposition, good looks and pleasant smile have made him one of E.P.'s best-known personalities. When he's not seen laughing and joking with a group of boys, he can be found escorting to class one of the fairer sex. Without doubt we have here one of the school's most popular fellows.

DANIEL CARROLL JOHNSON

It is often stated that, "A friend in need is a friend indeed." This certainly applies to Danny as anyone will tell you. In the fall he played many fine games in football. He is also an expert when it comes to shooting. (Especially ducks.) Danny is one of our best dancers. Just watch him at any of the proms.

JUNE JOHNSON

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Senior Play (3), Crimson (3), Assembly Com. (2-3), Bond Rep. (2-3), Swimming (1).

June, with her charm, dignity and gracious manner, is an intellectual member of our class. From the very moment that she entered E.P. she has done her work with such steadfastness that we often wondered how she did it. Although June is a true E.P. fan she is also loyal to Moses Brown.

STANLEY ALFRED JOHNSON

Honor Society

Although Stan, who hails from Philipsdale, appears to be quiet and shy, he is full of fun and enjoys a good time. He is seen at the various sports activities helping to cheer the team to victory. The fact that he can be quiet at the right time is appreciated by his teachers.

VIRGINIA RITA JONES

Virginia is pretty as well as intelligent. The saying, "Pretty but dumb," does not refer to Virginia, as many of us know. She is reliable and always has a good word for everyone. Virginia's beautiful big eyes are the envy of many and light up the minute she talks or smiles.

DORIS KARIBIAN

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Swimming (3), Skating (2), Latin Society (2).

The girl with the black hair and beautiful clothes is Dickie, our sports enthusiast. Dickie's ambition to be a doctor should certainly be fulfilled if her marks in science are any preview of the future. Dickie also has a wonderful sense of humor which keeps her many friends happy.

ROBERT WARREN KARLSSON

Hi-Y (1-2), Skating (2), Wrestling (3).

Who is that blond Casanova ambling through the corridors of E.P.? Bob Karlsson, of course. His interests are not all in the Merchant Marine—the fairer sex claims a great part of his attention, belying the fact that he looks bashful. Bob made a wonderful lifeguard last summer and we hope to see him again.

MARY ELIZABETH KENNEDY

Bowling (2-3), Skating (2).

Mary, with her long, shining hair and brown eyes, is really a beautiful sight to see, but don't let that quiet, demure appearance fool you, for she is tops. Whenever there is a laughing crowd bowling, Mary is there in the middle. We could well afford to have more girls like Mary.

FREDERICK KESSLER

Baseball (1-2-3).

Fred is an inhabitant of that thriving, industrial boom-town, Philipsdale. Fred's wither movements have been rewarded by gales of laughter from his classmates. It seems that this senior class has a great number of comedian-scholars.

STRATHMORE KILKENNEY

Second Honors, Coll. Prep., Honor Society.

Strathmore is the lad with the all "A" reports. He is a quiet, studious young man with quite a sense of humor. Anyone who has seen him at the Canteen knows that he is also quite a Don Juan. We have heard that he will not laugh at a joke unless it is grammatically correct!

DAVID ARTHUR KING

Seconds Honors, Gen. Com., Honor Society, Nom. Com. (2), Senior Play (3).

That Dave is popular needs no explanation. His blond curly hair is the envy of many. Dave's cheery personality combined with his knowledge has made him popular. Dave always has a smile. His acting as Joe in the play was good. We won't forget the cheerfulness you brought to us, Dave.

JOHN DAVID KINNEAR

Wrestling (1-2-3).

Meet Davy—the lad with the friendly grin for everyone. Although he lives way out in Seekonk, Dave manages to attend almost all our games and social functions. By the way, Dave, that couldn't be a girl's ring you're wearing on your little finger, could it?

ROBERT EDWIN KJELLMAN

Basketball (3).

Don't worry, girls; he is not as shy as he looks. In fact he's quite a woman's man. Bobby has heard quite a few different pronunciations of his name during his stay in high school, none so bad, however, as the one I heard in a grocery store—"Chum."

AUDREY LENARDSON KNECHT

Chorus (3).

Meet Audrey, a dainty little miss, who came from Philipsdale. She is a regular attendant at all our games and social affairs. It is said that she spends much of her spare time at the movies or with a certain someone.

JOSEPHINE KATHRYN KORKUC

Quiet, pretty, and intelligent, that's Josephine or Ukie as her best friends call her. Her smart clothes are admired by the girls, her good looks by the boys, and her pleasing personality by all. Since this picture was taken, Ukie has a new attraction. Those bangs are really cute.

ALVINA ALMA KURTZ

Chorus (3).

Honey, that cute blonde from Riverside, could be seen at many of our football games, helping to cheer our teams to victory. She is lots of fun and is well liked by all. Honey is a great fan for roller-skating and can often be seen at the Riverside Rink.

BARBARA JANE LACY

Assembly Com. (3).

Petite, blond and full of fun is Barbara. She is seldom seen without her friend Peg. Barbara supports E.P.'s activities with zeal and zest. We hope you never lose your friendly ways, Barb, because they have added much to your classes. Your cheery personality will long be remembered, Barb.

FRANK LADISH

Here's one Seekonk fellow who doesn't ride to school in that little orange bus, for Frank is fortunate in having his own car to carry him about. Often he can be seen with several girls accompanying him. Don't let his quiet appearance fool you, for Frank is definitely friendly and full of fun.

RICHARD STEWART LARSON

Honor Society, Hi-Y (2-3), Treas. (3), Ring Com. (2),
Senior Play (3).

Dick is a good looking fellow with a really pleasing personality. During his stay at East Providence Dick has made a host of friends and admirers. His great asset is his prowess at algebra and the higher mathematics which are necessary for his position as treasurer of the Hi-Y.

ANDREW LEMAR

Andy is a fun-loving fellow, always ready with a joke. He cheers his classmates when they are down-hearted about not having studied for a test. His main interest is in the present sophomore class. To all appearances Andy and school don't seem to get along very well together.

EDWARD LIBOWITZ

J.V. Football (1), Varsity (2), Hockey (1-2-3), Baseball (1-2-3).

Eddie is an all-round sportsman and has been seen exerting himself in football, baseball and hockey. With his good looks and sense of humor, Lib would make a prize catch for any girl, but so far he has managed to avoid most members of the fairer sex.

HAZEL MARION LIVINGSTON

Honor Society.

Hazel, known to us as Marion, is an attractive blonde from Seekonk. Like many of the other students from that section, she is an honor student. Marion is sincerely friendly, with a charming personality much appreciated by her friends. She is usually seen with her friend Priscilla at E.P.'s highlights.

STEWARD MACDONALD

Honor Society, Wrestling (1-2-3), Manager (3).

Stewy is a jovial young wrestler from the Wilds of Seekonk. Stewy let Bazil and me read a poem written about one of his ancestors. It took a good deal of time to convince Stewy that "The Charge of MacDonald" was not written about his great-grandfather.

JAMES ROBERT MACEDO

Good looking and well groomed—this describes Jim. His agreeable nature and ability to laugh have always made him very popular among his classmates—both male and female. We hope that his future will be as happy and successful as his years at E.P. have been.

EVELYN MAILLE

Evelyn is petite, sweet and neat. Her sweet disposition is the envy of many. She can always be seen amongst a group in the corridors or at lunch enjoying good talks and hearty laughs. Evelyn has been a good student at E.P., and E.P. has enjoyed having her here.

FRANK ELMER MANCHESTER III

Honor Society, Wrestling (1), All State (2), Capt (3), Senior Play (3), Hi-Y (3), Model Congress (3).

Just call him Clisthenes for short. Bones is that little 110-pound wrestler with such a stentorian voice. Many of you have listened in assembly to his flawless declamations. To top all this, Bones is an actor of no mean ability. A fellow senator at the Model Congress once compared him to Huey Long.

CHARLES KENNETH MARLING

This quiet-mannered, bashful, young man is not as sober-minded as he looks. Just watch him while he is in the company of one of his friends, and you will discover that he is full of fun. He has many friends among the boys, but he has not paid the slightest attention to the girls.

ELEANOR ANGEL MARSHALL

Skating (1), Orchestra (1), Bowling (2), Stamp Rep. (3),
Crimson (3).

Eleanor is that smartly dressed girl with the long, silky black hair and gracious manner. Artistically inclined, Eleanor designs and makes many of her own clothes. She is planning to enter Rhode Island School of Design in the fall. In future years we shall probably see one of Eleanor's illustrations in some well-known magazine.

MANUEL FRATUS MARTIN

Honor Society.

Manuel is the little fellow who darts back and forth through the corridors before the bigger lads can turn around. Although Manuel is small, he has participated very actively in class work. His name always appears on the honor roll, usually at the top.

PAUL FRANCIS MARTIN

Movie Operator (1-2-3), Senior Play (3), Hi-Y (2).

All of you have heard of the Surrey with the Fringe on Top. Well, here is the Comic with the wave on top. Paul is sure to have a class in stitches the first chance he gets. Paul divides his time between a little blonde from Junior High named Avis and his English homework.

BEVERLY LOUISE MAURATH

Honor Society, Bowling (2-3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Assembly Com. (3),
Senior Play Prod. (3).

This charming dark-eyed miss with the smart clothes is always seen at all of the school functions escorted by a certain blond football player. Although her interests lie in Kent Heights, she will be an asset to any college she plans to attend, both in studies and extracurricular activities.

HELEN MARGARET MAY

Vice Pres. (2), Bowling (2-3), Nom. Com. (2-3), Swimming (3).

"A sweet girl graduate." This may be a trite expression, but it is certainly well suited to Helen, who is just that. Surely you have noticed this attractive, well-poised blonde around school. Helen has set a fine example for all lower classmen as she goes serenely on her way.

PAUL McBRIDE

Hockey (2-3).

Smiling or sober, rushing madly through the corridors or loitering on the stairs, noisy or quiet, doing nothing or up to some mischief, Peter has really been quite a puzzle for us and the teachers to solve. Pete's main interest while at E.P. has been hockey.

MARTHA FRANCIS McCOART

Skating (1), Hi-Tri (1), Bowling (1-2-3).

Who is that whiz of a bowler? Martha McCoart, naturally. Martha is always full of the well-known "vim, vigor and vitality." A peppy personality and a hoard of jokes make her one of the most popular members of our class. Whenever you're gloomy, find Martha; she'll cheer you up.

GEORGE WILLIAM McCOMBE

Football (2-3), All-State (3), Soc. Com. (3), Nom. Com. (3), J.V. Football (1).

Here we have the perfect football player. Whitey's brilliant playing on the football field last year was rewarded by his appointment to the All-State team. Whitey is the shy type whose complexion turns to a bright vermillion whenever he is spoken to by one of the fairer sex.

EILEEN ANN McCONAGHY

The friendly girl with the attractive smile and sparkling eyes? That is Eileen McConaghy. Eileen, a charming girl with a host of friends, comes from the well-known town of Riverside. The riders of the Riverside school bus are always kept merry by her comical, dry remarks and her cute giggle.

PATRICK McCONAGHY

Pat is one of the liveliest male members of the class. He is part of the well-known Riverside Society of Boys. His sense of humor and his pep have made him popular with all of us. He and his friend Dave have made their classes lively with their humorous remarks.

GEORGE McDONALD

George can often be seen riding around Rumford in his beloved Ford. George doesn't appreciate the wonders of education as much as some of the other students who grace our classrooms. All of you will probably read in the newspaper in the future about George, a famous self-educated man.

RITA ANN McDONOUGH

Bowling (2), Nom. Com. (2), Contest Play Prod. (2), Ki-Hi-Tri (2), Swimming (3), Crimson (3), Senior Play (3), Townie, Assembly Com. (3).

Rita came to East Providence from Central in her junior year. Since then her vigor and her sense of humor have been a welcome addition to our class. Her part as the elder sister in our senior play was done well and helped to make this play one of our most successful.

JOHN MEDEIROS

Johnny is the serious type of fellow that is rare at East Providence. Johnny is one member of our class who really intends to be a scientific farmer. We, the members of the senior class, wish you good luck on your first crop and hope that your crops will soon be on the market.

MARY MEDEIROS

Senior Queen, Bowling (2-3), Swimming (3), Cheer Leader (2-3), Soc. Com. (2), Vice Pres. (3), Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Skating (2), Crimson (3).

A pretty little cheer leader with brown wavy hair and personality plus! If not seen cheering one of our teams to victory, she can be seen carrying out her duties as our senior class vice-president. Mary has been an all-round girl during her stay at East Providence, and "to know her is to like her" certainly fits this modern miss.

VIRGINIA MELKONIAN

Bowling (2), Ki-Hi-Tri (2).

Virginia is one of the smaller members of our class. Her shyness is forgotten by everyone whenever she flashes one of her brilliant smiles. She, unlike most of the seniors, faithfully buys stamps every Tuesday morning. Virginia has many friends and is well liked by all who are fortunate enough to know her.

HELEN ANTOINETTE MERANDI

Honor Society, Chorus (2).

A perfect lady, Helen has done her homework diligently and never failed to make honors. Many people have admired her neat appearance and beautifully kept hair. Although she looks demure, don't be deceived! She is full of pep.

BETTY LOUISE METTS

Betty's spontaneous smile and cheery "hello" have been sources of many friendships made during her stay at E.P. Along with being proficient in the art of jitterbugging, Pee-Wee has a very sweet singing voice, which ought to take her far into the realm of music.

ELIZABETH ANN MILLER

Elizabeth is a tall, slim, sedate young lady who, at first glance, appears a bit shy and quiet. Notice that I said "at first glance!" She is almost loquacious and certainly is full of fun; we always enjoy ourselves when Elizabeth is one of our group. Best of everything!

ROBERT ALLAN MILLER

Who's the good looking boy with the sharp sport clothes? Why Bob, of course. One of his favorite pastimes is tormenting the fairer sex. He has taken a difficult course and has come through with flying colors. Not all his time is spent studying, for he is a loyal supporter of all class dances.

MARION DEBORAH MINER

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Stamp Rep. (1), Sen. Play Prod. (3), Assembly Com. (2).

Marion is quiet, very ladylike, studious and sincere. Her cheery smile has won for her many friends at E.P. (Not only at E.P., however.) We know of a certain young man who seems to be taking up quite a bit of her time.

JOHN EDWARD MONAHAN

John is the bashful boy with flashy red hair. He went to St. Raphael for a while, but evidently he got lonesome for us. He returned here and has shown strong school spirit, for he was seen at most of the sports events with his many friends, cheering lustily.

LOUISE MONTEITH

Hi-Tri (1), Skating (2), Crimson (3), Assembly Com. (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Townie (2-3).

Who's that cute girl?—you ask. Well it's Louise. Her sweet personality has made her a popular girl. Lou is often seen getting information for her articles for the Townie. Hardly a game is won that Louise hasn't cheered. Louise plans to be a nurse. The line for the hospital forms at the right!

ANTHONY MICHAEL MOTTA

Anthony can usually be seen in room 4 with the rest of his pals. Good-natured and full of fun, he's an asset to any classroom. We happen to know that in his spare time he's quite handy with the butcher knife. Right, Anthony?

LENA MARIE MOURA

Skating (1).

Lena is an addition to any class for her brightness as well as her joyfulness. Although rather quiet, Lena always enjoys a good joke and always has a good time no matter where she is. She knows, though, that a class is the place for study and work.

JANE ANNE MUNROE

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3).

Jane is the girl with the lovely auburn hair and dark brown eyes. Jane's bandbox appearance has made many a girl envious. A conscientious student, she manages always to have her name on the honor roll, Jane hopes to enter Wheelock in the fall.

JOSEPH RICHARD NAJAS

Joe joined us in October of our senior year, coming from Natick, Massachusetts. We hope that he likes us as much as we like him; we wouldn't mind a few more from Natick. We've found him a good sport, an enjoyable companion and a conscientious student.

PAUL RAYMOND NELSON

Honor Society, Band (1-2-3), Hi-Y (1-2-3), Track (2).

Paul is that tall fellow we see walking down the corridor. He is the strong silent type and very patient. A good example of his patience is that little incident when the "Rover Boys" left Paul out in Seekonk one dark night and made him walk home.

HAROLD NOBLE

Harold is usually seen walking around Warren Avenue with Motta or one of the boys. Don't be alarmed if you hear a lot of noise coming from the back of the room; it's only Harold chit-chatting with one of his neighbors. We shall always remember him for his rather senseless comments in sophomore biology.

MARGARET O'CONNELL

Honor Society, Lib. Aux. (1), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Skating (1), Ki-Hi-Tri (3).

Pep, vim, vigor, pretty black hair, neat clothes and a grand personality—all a description of Peg. It's no wonder that she is popular with the students. Peg has always had a good report card, too. It will be a long time before we forget your cheerfulness and popularity, Peg.

SARAH MARY OLIVER

Honor Society, Bowling (2-3).

Enthusiastic? Talkative? Charming? Clever? Of course, this is dark-haired, sparkling eyed Sarah. Her neat appearance and her witty sayings also add to her popularity. She is a well-known member of the bowling team and never fails to obtain a high score in school studies as well as in bowling.

MADELINE OLSON

Cheer Leader (2-3), Assembly Com. (3), Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Crimson (3), Bowling (2-3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Townie (3).

Here is a true believer in the old slogan "Smile and the world smiles with you," for Maddy is one of the happy-go-luckiest girls in our class. Who could help noticing her cheery smile, even when everyone else is feeling blue? A cheer leader for the past two years. Maddy has helped to inspire our teams to victory.

ROSALIE OVERDEEP

Honor Society, Orchestra (1), Bowling (2-3), Lib. Aux. (2-3), (Pres.) (3), Townie (3).

In thinking of Rosalie you picture long taffy hair and a big smile. She has made many friends, but her bosom pal is Sarah. Her marks in stenography and type are ones to be proud of. She looks forward to working in an office, where she'll look very smart indeed.

HERBERT ALLYN PARMENTER

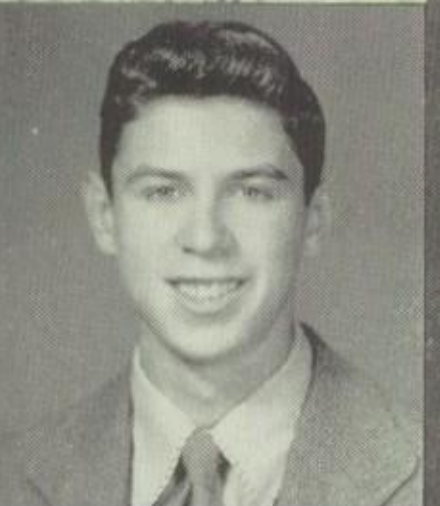

Wherever Al is you can be sure something exciting is going on. With his friendly greeting (and curly hair) he is welcomed to liven up any party. Not only is he an expert swimmer but also he does well on any dance floor. One of his many interests seems to be a certain freshman at R.I. State.

LEONA LUCIA PARTRIDGE

Chorus (3).

Leona is one of the quieter members of our class. Although she keeps in the background, Leona is well-liked by all who know her. Leona's ambition after graduation is to become a secretary. With her good record here, she should soon be the boss's indispensable right hand.

HILDING PEARSON

J.V. Basketball (2), Varsity (3).

Everyone knows Gus, the tall good-looking basketball player who has done such a good job in the field the past year. Gus is a member of that famous basketball team clique made up of boys like Hank, Johnny and Red. Mr. Good is going to have a hard time replacing Gus next year.

NORMA ELAINE PEARSON

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bond Rep. (1-2), Swimming (1), Bowling (2-3), Assembly Com. (3), Drum Majorette (3).

Surely you remember Norma as the attractive, high-stepping drum majorette of our band. Norma is also quite an amateur photographer, and with her brilliant red hair and pretty blue eyes she creates quite a charming picture herself. You certainly made life enjoyable for those who were lucky enough to attend your gay parties, Norma.

CAROL PENNIMAN

Honor Society, Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Swimming (1), Band (1),
Riding (2), Crimson (3), Nom. Com. (3).

Wanted: An expert skier and rider with good looks and personality. Found: Carol. She manages to combine social activities with school work and still finds time to play tricks on her friends. Full of surprises, maybe some day she'll learn to drive an airplane. Yes, Penny has all this and a little more besides.

HENRY PERRY

Henry recently returned to school after a long absence caused by a football injury. Henry is a quiet dignified senior who pays attention to his school work and doesn't allow his mind to wander. Henry is fond of sports, especially football, and spends his spare time playing ball according to the season.

MARVIN DEAN PERRY

Duck! Marvin is sailing airplanes around the room. Studying is much too boring for him, yet we doubt his ability as an aviator. His giggles and antics liven many classes, and his elusiveness as he roams corridors during study periods is envied by everyone.

EDITH MARIE PETERSON

Crimson (3).

Here's Edie, our athletic and vivacious blonde. She never seems to tire and is always willing to take part in any fun, either in a classroom or in the field of sports. Not all of Edith's qualities are found in her energy, for she is an attractive, dimpled blonde with a good scholastic record.

MARIE PETRUCCI

Marie always has a laugh or a delightful smile and cheery "Hello." Marie is one of the few of us who are able to study diligently in the assembly hall. Quite a stunt, that is! Between periods she can always be found in the corridors chatting with one or another of her many friends.

ALICE EVELYN PHILIPSON

This pretty blonde is as sweet in manner as she is in appearance, and she certainly adds attractiveness to our corridors. Alice certainly is a credit to the school with her cheerful willingness and her pleasant manner. Alice likes a good time and is always interested in sports.

MARILYN JANE PHILLIPS

Even though Marilyn wears a letter from LaSalle, she still has many friends at East Providence. She has a great deal of responsibility as a reporter for the Townie and does this work very well. Being the owner of a fur coat, Marilyn is envied by many of the girls.

ALBERT JULES PILON

Informer (1), Wrestling Mgr. (1-2), Wrestling (3), Senior Play (3), Model Congress (3), Movie Operator (1-2-3), Crimson (3), Assembly Com. (3), Hi-Y (2-3).

Al is an active member of the "Ask Teacher Another" class and holds the record for the number of questions asked in class. Never mind, Al, we've laughed and learned a great deal at your expense. Most of Al's free time has been spent operating the movie camera.

LUCY MAE PLACE

Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2), Swimming (3), Assembly Com. (3), Bond Rep. (1-2).

Lucy, the girl with the beautiful black curly hair, is a bundle of vim and vitality. When she's around, anything can happen. Fond of athletics, Lucy rarely misses a game and can often be seen with a host of companions bucking up the team.

MARGARET ANN PLANT

Hi-Tri (2-3), Orchestra (1), Bowling (2), Crimson (3).

Peggy is the little girl with a very businesslike air. She is one of our regular bowlers and a member of the Hi-Tri. It is quite a feat to be able to have fun and still get honors, but Peggy has proved that it can be done.

PHYLLIS ANNE POOLE

Bowling (2-3).

The girl with the pretty blond hair, the one who looks so lonesome at times, is Phyl. What's the matter? Isn't she popular? Great Scott, yes, but HE'S away—therefore, the forlorn expression. Phyl takes her work seriously and usually knows all the right answers.

PHYLLIS JEAN PRIOR

Chorus (3).

"A girl with a smile is a girl worth while" certainly applies to Phyl. She is that Rumford girl with the beautiful red hair, which we all envy, and the cute grin, which is a constant source of joy to all her friends. Phyl also gets good marks, a fact to be proud of.

MARTHA LOUISE QUILTY

Honor Society, Latin Society (2), Canteen Com. (2-3),
Editor-in-Chief Crimson (3).

Martha needs no introduction, for she is very well-known about school. She is one of the most dependable people in the class, faithful in her work, and completely sincere. Martha was chosen for the office of Crimson editor because of her capacity for accomplishing things.

FRANCIS ISIDORE RAMOS

Track (1), Skating (1), Swimming (2-3).

Francis, unlike most of his colleagues, is a good student. He has dark curly hair and a winning smile. His many friends are kept busy at all times keeping up with his witty remarks and jokes. Francis is really a very quiet boy, a fact you would not know just by looking at him.

ERNESTINE RAPOZA

Bowling (3).

Sugar, spice and everything nice; that's the recipe for Ernestine. Tiny (but not in personality) always has a smile on her face and a friendly "Howdy" for everyone. We've been proud to have her and her sunny smile to light up the interior of E.P. for these three years.

HELEN LOIS RAVENELL

Honor Society, Bowling (2-3), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Crimson Business Manager (3), Senior Play (3), Assembly Com. (3).

Helen is another Rumford epicure. She has won high honors in school, doing everything enthusiastically. Besides being an actress, Helen is also somewhat of a female orator, for her smooth low voice has cooled many a fevered brow in assembly.

JEAN ELIZABETH RAY

Ki-Hi-Tri (2).

Jean is one of those quiet and unusual girls who go around school minding their own business. However, her quietness is an asset, and not a liability, as she has many friends who enjoy her company immensely. She is a good student and she enjoys her subjects a great deal.

ELWOOD REGAN

Elwood is that comical lad who is never without a smile on his face. He is generally with Carey and Campbell flitting around in a decrepit jalopy of unknown age. This famous trio is seen at all sports and social events adding laughs to the occasion.

DOROTHY MARIE REILLY

Bowling (3).

Dorothy is a quiet, shy girl. Her wonderful sense of humor and wit is known only by her closest friends. She has many different hobbies which keep her busy at all times, and she is a loyal supporter of the high school sports. Her liking for studying is one of her most admirable traits.

JANE RILEY

Honor Society, Swimming (1), Bowling (2), Skating (1-2), Assembly Com. (2-3), Townie (2-3).

Janie's the gal who is always full of pep, energy and ideas, and who can always be seen rushing through the corridors, often getting scoops for the Townie. She's a gal who can also be found at all the school's social events adding fun and laughter to the gathering. Keep smiling, Jane.

CAROL KENDALL ROBERTS

Swimming (1), Bowling (1), Skating (1), Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2), Townie (2), Senior Play Prod. (3).

Don't let Carol's serene appearance fool you, for she is as full of life and fun as she can be. She was present at all the activities during her first two years here, but Hank's being away has prevented her from being at all our school socials this year.

PAUL JOHN ROBINSON

Basketball (3), Class Pres. (3).

Tall, good looking—basketball player and class president. Who could ask for anything more? We were very fortunate when Paul decided to come to East Providence in his junior year from LaSalle. One of his many traits is lending a helping hand when it's needed. His friendly personality has won him many lasting friends.

MARY ROCHA

Here we have the ideal student. We mean, of course, that Mary rarely talks in class, taking full advantage of East Providence's General Course. Although she is rather reserved in manner, she has made many friends in her three years of high school.

MALCOLM ROCHFORD

Contest Play Man. (2), Baseball Man. (2-3), Football Man. (3), Senior Play (3).

Mal is that smiling good-natured fellow who can usually be seen strolling about with his Riverside cohorts. In one issue of the Townie Rochie was described as one of the great lovers of the senior class. To top it all, Mal has a very good-looking car.

HAZEL VIOLA RUNDGREN

Honor Society.

This tall good-looking blonde has been with us for three years. Although quiet, Hazel has made many lasting and true friends at E.P. by her pleasing personality, friendly manner, and bashful smile. We all wish her success which we know she is sure to have.

ELIZABETH JANE RYAN

We all know this attractive, vivacious girl who seems always to be hurrying through the corridors. She has a good time no matter where she is and manages to display her sense of humor in most of her classrooms. Do you think you'll ever become a typist, Betty?

DOLORES LAURA SALVADOR

Chorus (3).

You might think to look at Dolores that she is shy, but when you get to know her, you think differently. She is a lot of fun and a likeable person. She has been a good student at E.P. Dolores is ambitious as well as intelligent, for she works downtown every night after school.

PATRICIA SANFORD

Pretty Pat is well known by all at E.P. She is envied by many because of her many beautiful clothes. Pat attends all sports, especially hockey. We wonder why, Pat? Pat has been a good student at E.P. for the two years she has been with us. Pat formerly attended Cranston.

ANTHONY SCHIFINO

Football (1-2-3), Captain (3), Baseball (1-2-3), All-State (2-3), Hockey (3), J.V. Basketball (1), Indoor Track (2), Nom. Com. (2), Soc. Com. (2).

A member of the hockey team, of the baseball team, and captain of the 1945 football squad! There we have athletic ability and there we have Skippy Schifino. During his stay at E.P. he has become one of its outstanding, popular, and never-to-be-forgotten sons. The best of everything, Skip!

BEVERLY CAROLYN SCHROEDER

Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2), Bowling (2).

Although during class she is quiet and attentive, in other surroundings Beverly has plenty of fun, and she displays a fine sense of humor. She is a loyal member of Rainbow Girls and also participates in other social activities. An ardent sports fan, Bev may be seen cheering our teams to victory.

BERNICE FRANCES SCHULTZ

Honor Society.

The thing you notice first about Bernice is that she is always spic and span. Dainty is the word for this little girl, and what a pleasing picture she'll be for her employer in his office. Brains, too, she has, and a cheerful, sunny disposition.

ELEANOR LOUISE SEMPLE

Honor Society, Assembly Com. (3), Crimson (3).

Eleanor is a tall blue-eyed blonde who is one of the smartest girls in school. Eleanor is the type of girl who knows how to concentrate on her studies and at the same time take part in numerous school activities. Semp is also the athletic type.

MARION LOUISE SENNA

Marion is an attractive girl with pretty dark wavy hair and snappy eyes. Her witty remarks keep her friends in gales of laughter all the time. Gaiety will always accompany her, we know. Although she does not care too much for studying, she has done well in her school work.

JOSEPH PAUL SHEEHAN

Joe was quite a whiz when he took College Chemistry, but I guess the reason for that is that he liked the course. If you heard a slight explosion last year, I hope you weren't frightened. It was only Joe experimenting with his new substitute for gunpowder.

HOPE SHERMAN

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Swimimng (1-3), Horseback Riding (2), Cheer Leader (2-3), Bond Rep (1-2), Soc. Com. (2), Cap & Gown (3).

Here's to Hopie, the good looking, sunny dispositioned, fun-loving captain of our cheer leaders, whose shining hair and cute dimples are the envy of most of us. She is interested in music also, for she often sings in the assembly, alone and with the school chorus.

FAITH SHURTLEFF

Swimming (1), Skating (2), Senior Play (3).

Faith is that fortunate daughter of the famous Bert Shurtleff, wrestler, author, and lecturer. Faith is the type of girl that virtually bubbles over with wit and humor. Her juicy tidbits of wit have caused many a class to go into hysterics.

FERNANDO SILVA

Senior Play Crew (3).

Who is that tall handsome boy seen striding out of school and heading toward the corner drugstore? With his nonchalant manner, smooth clothes, and friendly grin, it couldn't be anyone but Ferdie. We all know him for his witty remarks, yet sincere thoughts.

GEORGE SILVA

Skating (2), Swimming (1-2), Track (1).

You all know George Silva, that tall senior from room 6. Everybody likes George, and there is a merry time when he is around. His favorite sports are football and basketball, and no game would be complete if George weren't there. His favorite pastimes are going to Roseland and New Bedford. He plans to go into the Army after graduation.

MADELINE SILVA

Skating (2), Assembly Com. (3), Canteen Com. (3), Townie (3), Senior Play Prod. (3).

Midge is a cute little number with her dark wavy hair and snappy brown eyes. If that Coastguardsman thinks she's cute now, wait till he sees her in a nurse's uniform. Wow! Midge is a good scout and a lot of fun; in fact, she's not Silva but solid gold!

RAYMONDA ROSE SILVA

Chorus (3).

Raymonda, known as Mandy, is one of E.P.'s many well-liked girls. She can be seen in many a class laughing and joking with all. She is well known for her cute jokes and witty remarks. Mandy is a great lover of animals, particularly of dogs.

ALTON SIMMS

Band (2-3), Orchestra (1-2), Assembly Com (1-2-3).

Al is one of the more talented members of our class, often referred to as E.P.'s own Frankie Carle. Since we entered high school we have all enjoyed Al's piano playing in assemblies. In 1956 when we hear Al playing his piano at Carnegie Hall, we can smile and say: "I knew him when."

MARY THERESA SKIERA

Mary, who is now a resident of Pawtucket, is one of E.P.'s many general students. She is a constant attendant at a certain roller-rink and a lover of dancing. She is the main interest of two certain young men. Mary's plans after graduation lie in the telephone operating business.

DONALD SMAIL

Hockey (3).

Don, a bashful member of our class, who hails from Riverside, has made for himself a good athletic record at E.P., participating in both football and hockey. He is seen quite often in the vicinity of Kent Heights with his ever-faithful colleagues. We all hope Don's bashfulness leaves him soon.

BARBARA ANN SMITH

Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Lib. Aux. (1-2)

Full of laughter, friendliness and charm, Barbara is another member of the class who hails from Riverside. She is always in the midst of a group of residents from that far-off part of East Providence studying or chatting with a few of her many friends.

DEBORAH JEAN SMITH

Honor Society, Skating (1-2), Swimming (1), Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Townie (3), Crimson (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Assembly Com. (3).

Deborah is another example of brains and brawn. She is also somewhat of a comedian, for she delights in tipping over a poor innocent senior's desk while he is still sitting at it. If you should walk through the gym and see a girl shooting baskets and showing all the boys up, that's Debby.

EARL SMITH

Mgr. Football (2-3), Mgr. Baseball (2-3), Mgr. Hockey (3).

Being the manager of our football, hockey and baseball teams, Earl is certainly an outstanding member of our class. He's another one of our famous "clam diggers," hailing from Riverside. His friendliness and cheerful disposition will long be remembered by his classmates.

MARION JANET SMITH

Swimming (1), Chorus (2), Bond Rep. (2), Ki-Hi-Tri (3).

You know Janet, the attractive blonde from Riverside. Jollity is only one of her many assets. A member of the chorus, she has helped to entertain us by demonstrating her musical talent in assembly. She has brought cheerfulness to many of us, and it has been fun to know her.

CAROLYN JEAN SODERLUND

Honor Society.

Carol, who spends a great deal of her time at Viall's Dairy, is a good sport and a fun-loving classmate. Her attention at school is divided between her studies and her companions. Carol's sincerity, one of her greatest charms, will earn for her as many more friends as those that she has gained at E.P.

FRANK SOLLITTO

Football (2-3), Basketball (3), Soc. Com. (2).

The student body of E.P. has for the past three years been the proud owner of this young man with such a wealth of red hair. The center of our football team, Red has been the center of attraction at many school affairs.

CAROLYN HELEN SOUZA

Chorus (3).

Cooky, a short, cute brunette can be found in room 8. Her brightness and cheery remarks have been an addition to E.P. Cooky, who works downtown, can be seen every night rushing for the three o'clock bus. Her heart trouble is caused by a certain someone by the name of Frank.

DONALD SPELLMAN

There's never a dull moment when Don's around. A quiet room is no longer quiet when he's in there very long. Many have been thrilled by his daring shots on the basketball court. As far as his social activities go, the fairer sex seems to be very much interested.

RAYMOND LAURIE STEEN

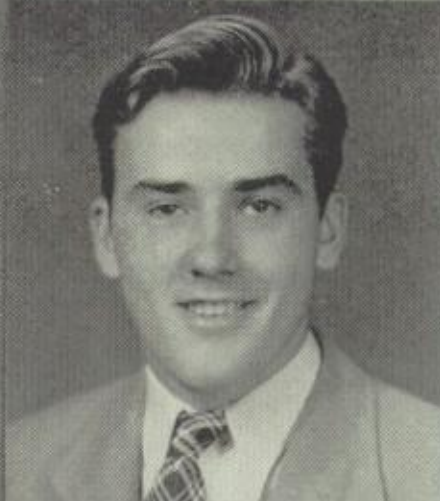

That handsome boy? That's Ray Steen from Riverside. You know, he was a lifeguard at Haines Beach last summer with his friend, Bob. Ray, very popular with both boys and girls, is a Boy Scout leader and an active leader in his church. He gains many friends each day with his wonderful personality.

MARY STEPHENSON

Mary, who is always welcome company, is well liked by all. Her friendly chatter and sweet disposition have won many friends. Mary can always be seen walking down the corridors with her other half, Carana. Mary has always been a distinguished student in her commercial course.

ROBERT STEVENSON

Bob is one fellow we've all enjoyed having as a classmate during his high school years. His witty remarks have more than once changed a dull classroom into a hilarious one. Although he didn't participate in any of our sports here at E.P., he could always be found rooting for the Red and White team no matter what the event.

SALLY ANN STREET

Orchestra (1), Band (2), Nom. Com. (2), Assembly Com. (2),
Swimming (1-3), Crimson (3).

Have you ever happened to hear someone near you humming the latest song hits? Why, of course you have. It's none other than Sally, the girl who has charmed many an assembly with her beautiful voice. Sally also has a gracious personality which has won her many friends.

ETHEL MAY SUTTON

Bowling (3), Bond Rep. (3).

She may appear demure and quiet but don't let that deceive you—a sparkling personality accompanies a cheerful disposition in her makeup. Ethel makes the most of her studies and works to excel in them. Her ambitious nature shames many an easy-going student into studying and liking it.

FRANK BENJAMIN SWARTWOUT, JR.

First Honors, Coll. Prep., Honor Society, Hi-Y (1-2), Sec (3),
Contest Play (2), Senior Play (2), Model Congress (3),
Crimson (3), Assembly Com. (3), Nom. Com. (2).

Frank, alias "The Brain," is another Rumford epicure. Miss Hartford has simplified her work a great deal by letting Frank explain all her tests and solve all the geometry problems for her. Frank is called Romeo by all his fellow congressmen who saw him at work at the Model Congress last year.

JOHN SWEENEY

Basketball (3).

What would a school social be without John to pep it up? Or a study hall without his whispering? Johnny is one of those fellows who make life sunshiny while he's around, with his everready smile and wit. Needless to say, his heart and soul have been with the basketball team.

GLORIA MARIE TAVARES

This dark haired lass is full of pep, energy, and ideas. She is one of the most active members of her gym class and is fond of any kind of sport—participating in all of those open to the girls. She has taken the commercial course during high school and, with vitality such as she has, this miss is sure to succeed.

EDWARD GEORGE TEFFT

Eddy is the serious type of student who uses all his time to good advantage. His high marks in mathematics have caused many a student to turn green with envy. Eddy seems to find time from his studies to participate in many of our extracurricular activities.

BARBARA BOWAN TEWKSBURY

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Bowling (2-3), Senior Play Prod. (3).

Vivacious, friendly, popular—all these only partly describe Barb. She is one of the Rumford "gang" who thoroughly enjoy a good time, especially in Penny's car. Although during class Barb is usually attentive, her study periods are frequently filled with writing, other than homework.

WALTER THAYER

Hi-Y (1).

Walt is the fellow that has taken a very difficult course but still finds time to attend the athletic events. One often wonders what he talks about during Spanish. It is seldom that he fails to do an assignment. Always ready to join in the fun around school Walt has made many friends.

JUNE THEROUX

Bowling (2-3), Skating (2), Swimming (2-3), Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Treas. (3).

When thinking of June, one naturally thinks of sweetness, for she is exactly that. Although our rival school holds a great deal of her interest, June finds time to attend many E.P. events with Mary. Having a good nature and friendly manner, she is held in high esteem by all of her many friends.

JOHN TIANO

Students should be seen and not heard. This applies to John during classes but certainly not any place else. He is a conscientious student but still has time for his hobbies of hunting and fishing. Uncle Sam has first choice on what he's to do after graduation.

EVA AMELIA TILLEY

Chorus (3).

Don't let her quietness fool you. When Eva gets going, she can be lots of fun. Eva is a pretty addition to E.P. Her sweet smile and pleasing manners have made her many friends. Eva can be seen in the chorus room four times a week singing with the rest of the chorus, the many songs they so enjoy.

JOHN IRVIN TOWNE

Jack seems to be one of the quiet members of the class, but to those who know him, he is pleasant, cheerful and witty. With his interesting personality and ready grin, this handsome lad from Rumford has been the object of numerous glances from the opposite sex.

EDWARD ALBERT TOWNSEND

Edward is an exceedingly friendly lad and possesses a wonderful sense of humor. He can usually be found in Allen's drug-store or riding through the streets of East Providence on his bike. We sometimes wonder if he prefers doing this to coming to school.

LILLIAN ELLA TRACY

Skating (2).

Lillian is a pretty blonde with a delightful personality. She is extremely fond of dancing and is well liked by all. She is intelligent and ambitious in whatever she does. Lillian is one of our many chorus girls who have been an appreciated addition to our Wednesday assemblies.

ELSIE JILL TRAVERSE

Bowling (2-3), Rep. for French Clothing Drive (2).

A lady, a good friend and a good student—that describes Elsie. She has attracted many friends by her sweet disposition. She can be relied upon to do everything willingly. Elsie is known for her pretty clothes and sweet smile. She has done well in her studies at school.

DOROTHY EATON TURNER

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Swimming (1), Horseback Riding (2), Senior Play Prod. (3).

Who is making all that noise? Dotty! I guess what they say about all good things coming in little packages is true in her case. Dotty hails from that seafaring town called Riverside. Remember if you are ever in need of bucking up, go see Dotty. She's always good for a laugh.

JEAN ALTHEA TURNER

Always ready with an excuse from gym—that's Jean. She has a loyal following of friends and always has a witty remark to fill in a dull moment. Although studying is not one of her favorite pastimes she appears to do all right. It is rumored that she is a very good swimmer.

MARCIA UPHAM

Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2-3), Soc. Com. (2-3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Townie (3), Crimson (3).

Marcia is a veritable live wire, for she is active in numerous social activities throughout the school. She is extremely pretty with her blonde hair and sparkling blue eyes. Marcia is artistically inclined and does remarkably well in that field. In Spanish we say "una buena muchacha"; in East Providence we say "a swell kid."

SHIRLEY VAUGHN

Hi-Tri (1-2), Assembly Com. (3), Senior Play Prod. (3), Skating (2), Townie (3).

For three years Shirley has slipped quietly to her classes. Not that she is always quiet, for Shirley loves a good time and is always around to do her share in making our parties a success. Wherever you find her you are usually sure to find Lou.

LOUISE BARBARA VEYERA

Honor Society, Skating (2), Canteen Com. (2-3), Latin Society (2).

Who's that girl who works at the door of the E.P. canteen every week? Why, that's Barb, the girl who has the keen sense of humor and plays such good baseball in the gym class. She also has an ambition to become a teacher. Don't be too hard on the pupils, Barb.

EMMA VIEIRA

Lib. Aux. (2-3).

Who is that laughing so merrily in the cafeteria? Emma Vieira, naturally. Emma has many friends, and she keeps them all happy with her witty remarks. Her apparent joy in studying is a wonder to all but, she will tell you, it has its dividends.

CLEMENT VINCENT

Everyone knows Clem and has laughed at him sometime or another. Clem is the versatile jester of East Providence who has entertained so many teachers and students. He is an active athlete and is a member of a well-known local football team.

GRACE WALKER

Ice Skating (1-2), Bowling (1).

A dark-haired miss with sparkling eyes and a cute smile! Gracie's quietness is offset by a friendly personality, and those who know her well value this quality highly. During her stay at East Providence she trained for the business world which she plans to enter upon graduation. This smiling lass will go far.

MARION WATSON

Friendly, good-natured Marion is always ready to help a friend. One of her special interests is dancing, and we hear that she does very well on the dance floor. Surely Marion's distinguishing characteristics will gain her a place on the ladder to success.

RICHARD WELLS

Dick is a jovial fellow, always ready for fun, one who can win any argument that is presented to him. He is interested in boats and ships of all kinds. Very appropriately he entered the Merchant Marine for a few years but has returned to graduate with the class of '46.

MARJORIE WELT

Honor Society, Ki-Hi-Tri (1-2-3).

Good things come in small packages and, of course, by this we mean Marjorie. Being quiet and reserved brings good results in her case as her report card readily shows. If ever you want anything done right just call on Marjorie.

BARBARA WHITE

Crimson (3).

Barbara is a girl who is talented in various fields. She is an accomplished dancer, an artist and a seamstress. Yes, girls, she makes a great many of those beautiful clothes she wears. Barbara's gay personality has made her a true friend to us all.

JOSEPH SALVERIA WHITE

If you're looking for a friendly, mischievous fellow, Joe's your answer. He seems to be greatly admired by the opposite sex. If you ever want to meet this boy just go to the basketball games, and you're sure to see him sitting on the sidelines.

MARY WHITE

Who always knows the answers in history? That's right—Mary. Mary is studious, sweet, pretty and generous, four adjectives that make up a 1-A person. You can always enjoy a good time with Mary. She is a lot of fun and is well liked. Mary will be missed in E.P.

ROBERTA WHITE

Hi-Tri (1-2-3), Skating (1-2), Bowling (2-3), Townie (2-3),
Crimson (3).

Bobbie is the diminutive girl who is usually dashing back and forth on some business for the Crimson or any other activity. Her friendly manner and charm account for the group of friends that always surround Bobbie, making her one of the popular girls at E.P.

AUDREY WILKINSON

Riding Club (3), Swimming (2), Basketball (2).

Here we have Audrey with her large dark eyes, one of the youngest members of our class. Have you ever noticed the cute, puzzled scowl that appears on her face whenever she is called upon to recite? Outside of class, however, Audrey is a very friendly and energetic girl.

MARTHA WILLIAMS

A quiet unassuming miss with brown hair and sparkling blue eyes. Yes, that's Martha. Her close friends know that behind her quiet nature lies a fun-loving and happy personality. She is a true friend to all and will surely be missed by her classmates and teachers.

GEORGE WILLIS

Georgie is one of the gang from Kent Heights. For the past three years he has faithfully brought a car full of boys to school. Although late quite often, he always manages to get here. Georgie is cheerful and friendly and has a very good sense of humor.

DOROTHY MAY WILSON

Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Skating (2).

Everybody knows her flaming red hair and friendly manner. Dot has done much to make the Riverside Canteen a big success. She spends her spare time (and a little more besides) writing to another redhead. E.P. corridors just won't be the same without Dot.

RICHARD WILSON

Portland High's loss was E.P.'s gain. Dick came here in the last half of his senior year from Connecticut. There he was an active member of his class and a member of the baseball team for two years. Although he has only been with us a short time, he has made many friends.

RUTH MARIE WILSON

Bowling (2-3), Swimming (2-3), Assembly Com. (2), Ki-Hi-Tri (2), Skating (2).

Full of fun and a hot sketch is our Ruth. Her dark hair and light brown eyes are the envy of every girl. Ruth is an active member of the journalism class and, although it takes her quite some time to get her assignments in, they are always welcome when they do come in.

BARBARA JANE WOOD

Ki-Hi-Tri (2-3), Bowling (2), Bond Rep. (2), Swimming (1-3),
Assembly Com. (3), Skating (1-2).

Barbie is one of the most popular girls in our class. With her winning smile and pleasing disposition, she has made herself liked by all. Social activities and sports have held the greatest attraction for Barbie, who is a good dancer and an ardent follower of our teams.

DANIEL HENSHAW WOOD

Band (1-2-3), Orchestra (1-2), Ring Com. (2), Soc. Com. (3),
Wrestling (3), Senior Play Prod. (3).

My, that car makes a lot of noise, doesn't it? Sure, that's Danny Wood's Model T. Danny is that talented drummer who plays in the school band and is such an enthusiastic member of our wrestling team. Danny also finds time to pay much attention to the members of our fairer sex.

GEORGE EDWARD WOOD

Woodie is the lad with a happy-go-lucky manner. He enjoys a good time and usually adds life to a group. He is an ardent supporter of activities and is always seen cheering the various teams to victory. It has been rumored that George studies occasionally. Is that true, Woodie?

JEAN WOOLLEY

Townie (3).

"Jeanie with the light brown hair" can always be found with a few of her many friends at all of the school's sport events. Wherever Jean is, there is always laughter and merriment, and she is a girl whose company everyone enjoys. Little E.P. will always remember you, Jean.

CAROL YOUNG

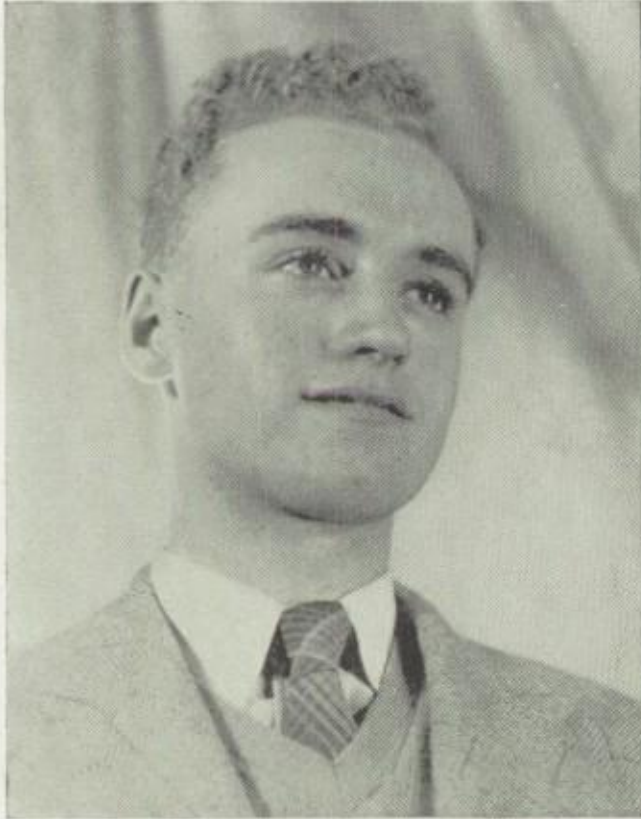

Carol is the cute little girl who adds her humor to the din and confusion of the Riverside bus. She is usually seen at the basketball and football games surrounded by a host of admirers. Anyone who knows Carol will comment on her lively wit and good humor.

ROBERT PHELAN

Sure, we know that Bob's name doesn't begin with Y. You see, he left school, but missed us so much that he returned, too late, however, for his right place in the book. But at the end of the alphabet or in the middle, we're mighty glad you're here.

CLASSES

ACT II

Which has to do with the four intermittent procedures
in the school curriculum.

THE SENIOR CLASS

When we entered East Providence High as sophomores, the year 1946, our senior year, seemed very far away. Now we are actually seniors and can look back happily upon our three years here.

Our class was organized in our junior year under Miss Dorothy Pickett.

Miss Pickett has proved herself a very able and tireless worker in behalf of the class of '46. Among the things for which we should like to thank Miss Pickett are her work with our committee for all of our social functions and her part in the quick delivery of our class rings. Last, but not least, we would like to thank her for being such an all-around enjoyable person for us to work with.

In our junior year we elected the following officers: president, Henry Butts; vice-president, Helen May; secretary, Shirley Goff; and treasurer, Edmund Arnold.

As seniors we elected president, Paul Robinson; vice-president, Mary Medeiros; secretary, Mary Ann Cameron; and treasurer, Fred Barker. Each of these students proved to be an industrious worker in his office.

Among the outstanding members of our class are our pride and joys on the All-State athletic teams: Pete McBride, hockey; William McCombe, football; and David Kinnear, John Hendricks, and Fred Barker, wrestling.

The class is also proud of the ex-members who are now serving in the armed forces.

We can look back with a smile upon our two argumentative students, Al Pilon and Fred Barker. Many of us who have been in their classes have greatly enjoyed listening to their very technical discussions.

Among the members of the class who have brought great honors to East Providence are Shirley Goff, the winner of the D.A.R. Award here at school and the Good Citizen Award in Rhode Island; Henry Butts, who was chosen from the whole greater Providence area as the delegate to the International Y.M.C.A. Convention at Atlantic City; Eleanor Semple and Frank Swarthwout, who were among the top twelve in Rhode Island participating in the Pepsi-Cola Scholastic Contest; and Mary Medeiros, a very popular member of the class, who was chosen Class Queen at the Valentine's Day class party in February.

DOROTHY H. PICKETT
Class Advisor

A number of new faces have been added to our class this year in the form of discharged servicemen who re-entered school, and we were glad to welcome them back.

A new star in the basketball spotlight at East Providence this year was Sol Guglielmo, a senior, who became the high scorer on the team, although this was his first season on the team at East Providence.

We, the class of '46, would like to thank all of the teachers here at the school who have been so willing and understanding with us in our training for the future.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Under the able leadership of our class advisor, Mr. Ernest Goodwin, the Junior Class organized in February of this year and elected as our class officers: Gilbert Bulley, president; Carolyn Bourne, vice-president; Alma Salve, secretary; and James Whitaker, treasurer. Competent social and ring committees were also installed.

The Junior Class is gifted with many talented athletes and scholars. Lou Sarkisian is on the football, baseball and track squads. Jim Whitaker is on the football and wrestling teams. Ed Crowley, Bill Viall and Myron Francis are also on the football squad. Dick Colella and Ken Danielson play hockey. Don Rinebolt and John Hendricks also wrestle. During one game this past football season, Coach Farber yelled impatiently for Ed Crowley, only to find that he was out on the field doing a bang-up job.

Ernest Agresti, one of our best scholars, added more straight A report cards to his impressive collection. Ernie is at his best with a chemistry book.

In a recent chemistry test, the symbol for tungsten was required. Mr. Martin dropped a gentle hint, "Isn't it nice that Western Electric uses tungsten in their electric light bulbs?" he quipped. One bright student promptly wrote down G.E. as the symbol.

The girls of our class merit praise too. They have supported our social affairs and our school teams faithfully. They are active in the Hi-Tri and Ki-Hi-Tri and have formed bowling teams. They also play basketball.

There have been some new faces in our class and also many departures. Several of our boys have gone into the armed services.

Thus, with our high standards of leadership, with our wholehearted support of our school, and with our individual abilities and talents, the Junior Class believes that it has set an excellent example for future classes to abide by.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

In September of 1945, we landed with a bang! The class of '48 had finally arrived! We had at last graced the corridors of East Providence High School with our presence, bringing with us all our additions to the different sports events, with Dick Collins, Bob McComb, Lennie Kent, Freddie Travers, Mickey Britto, Dick Lester, Red Grady and Fred Sollitto on the football team. Fred also proved to be our only sophomore hoopster. We soon found out that he outplayed many of the others on the team. The track team also prospered with Dave Young, Bronson Bump and many others. Coach Andy, of the wrestling team, had us to thank for Merle Gorman, Jim Baker, Bill Drapeau and Freddie Travers. Did you ever wonder, during the hockey season, who that little spot of greased lightning, dashing across the ice at the Arena was? Why, that's none other than our little five-footer, Joey Sprague. And we never could have done without our "Mr. Zero," Lou Fascio.

Don't think that the boys are the only part of our class worth talking about, for the girls are a mighty big asset with their bowling club and basketball teams. Norma Anderson's basketball team proved to be the best, defeating Connie Carey's team 36-30 in the finals. Also the Ki-Hi-Tri and Hi-Tri have many sophomore members.

We also have our class Casanova who seems to be Bob McComb—but don't forget little Bobby Bewis. Then we have Topsy Page, our male candidate for Personality Kid, who helped Mr. Olsen quite a bit with his stage crews for the senior and contest plays.

Can't figure out that algebra problem? Come into Miss Hartford's algebra class fourth period on Monday and hear Hugh Willoughby reel it off in nothing flat. Miss Gilbert has a whiz in one of her algebra classes, too, Doris Noyes.

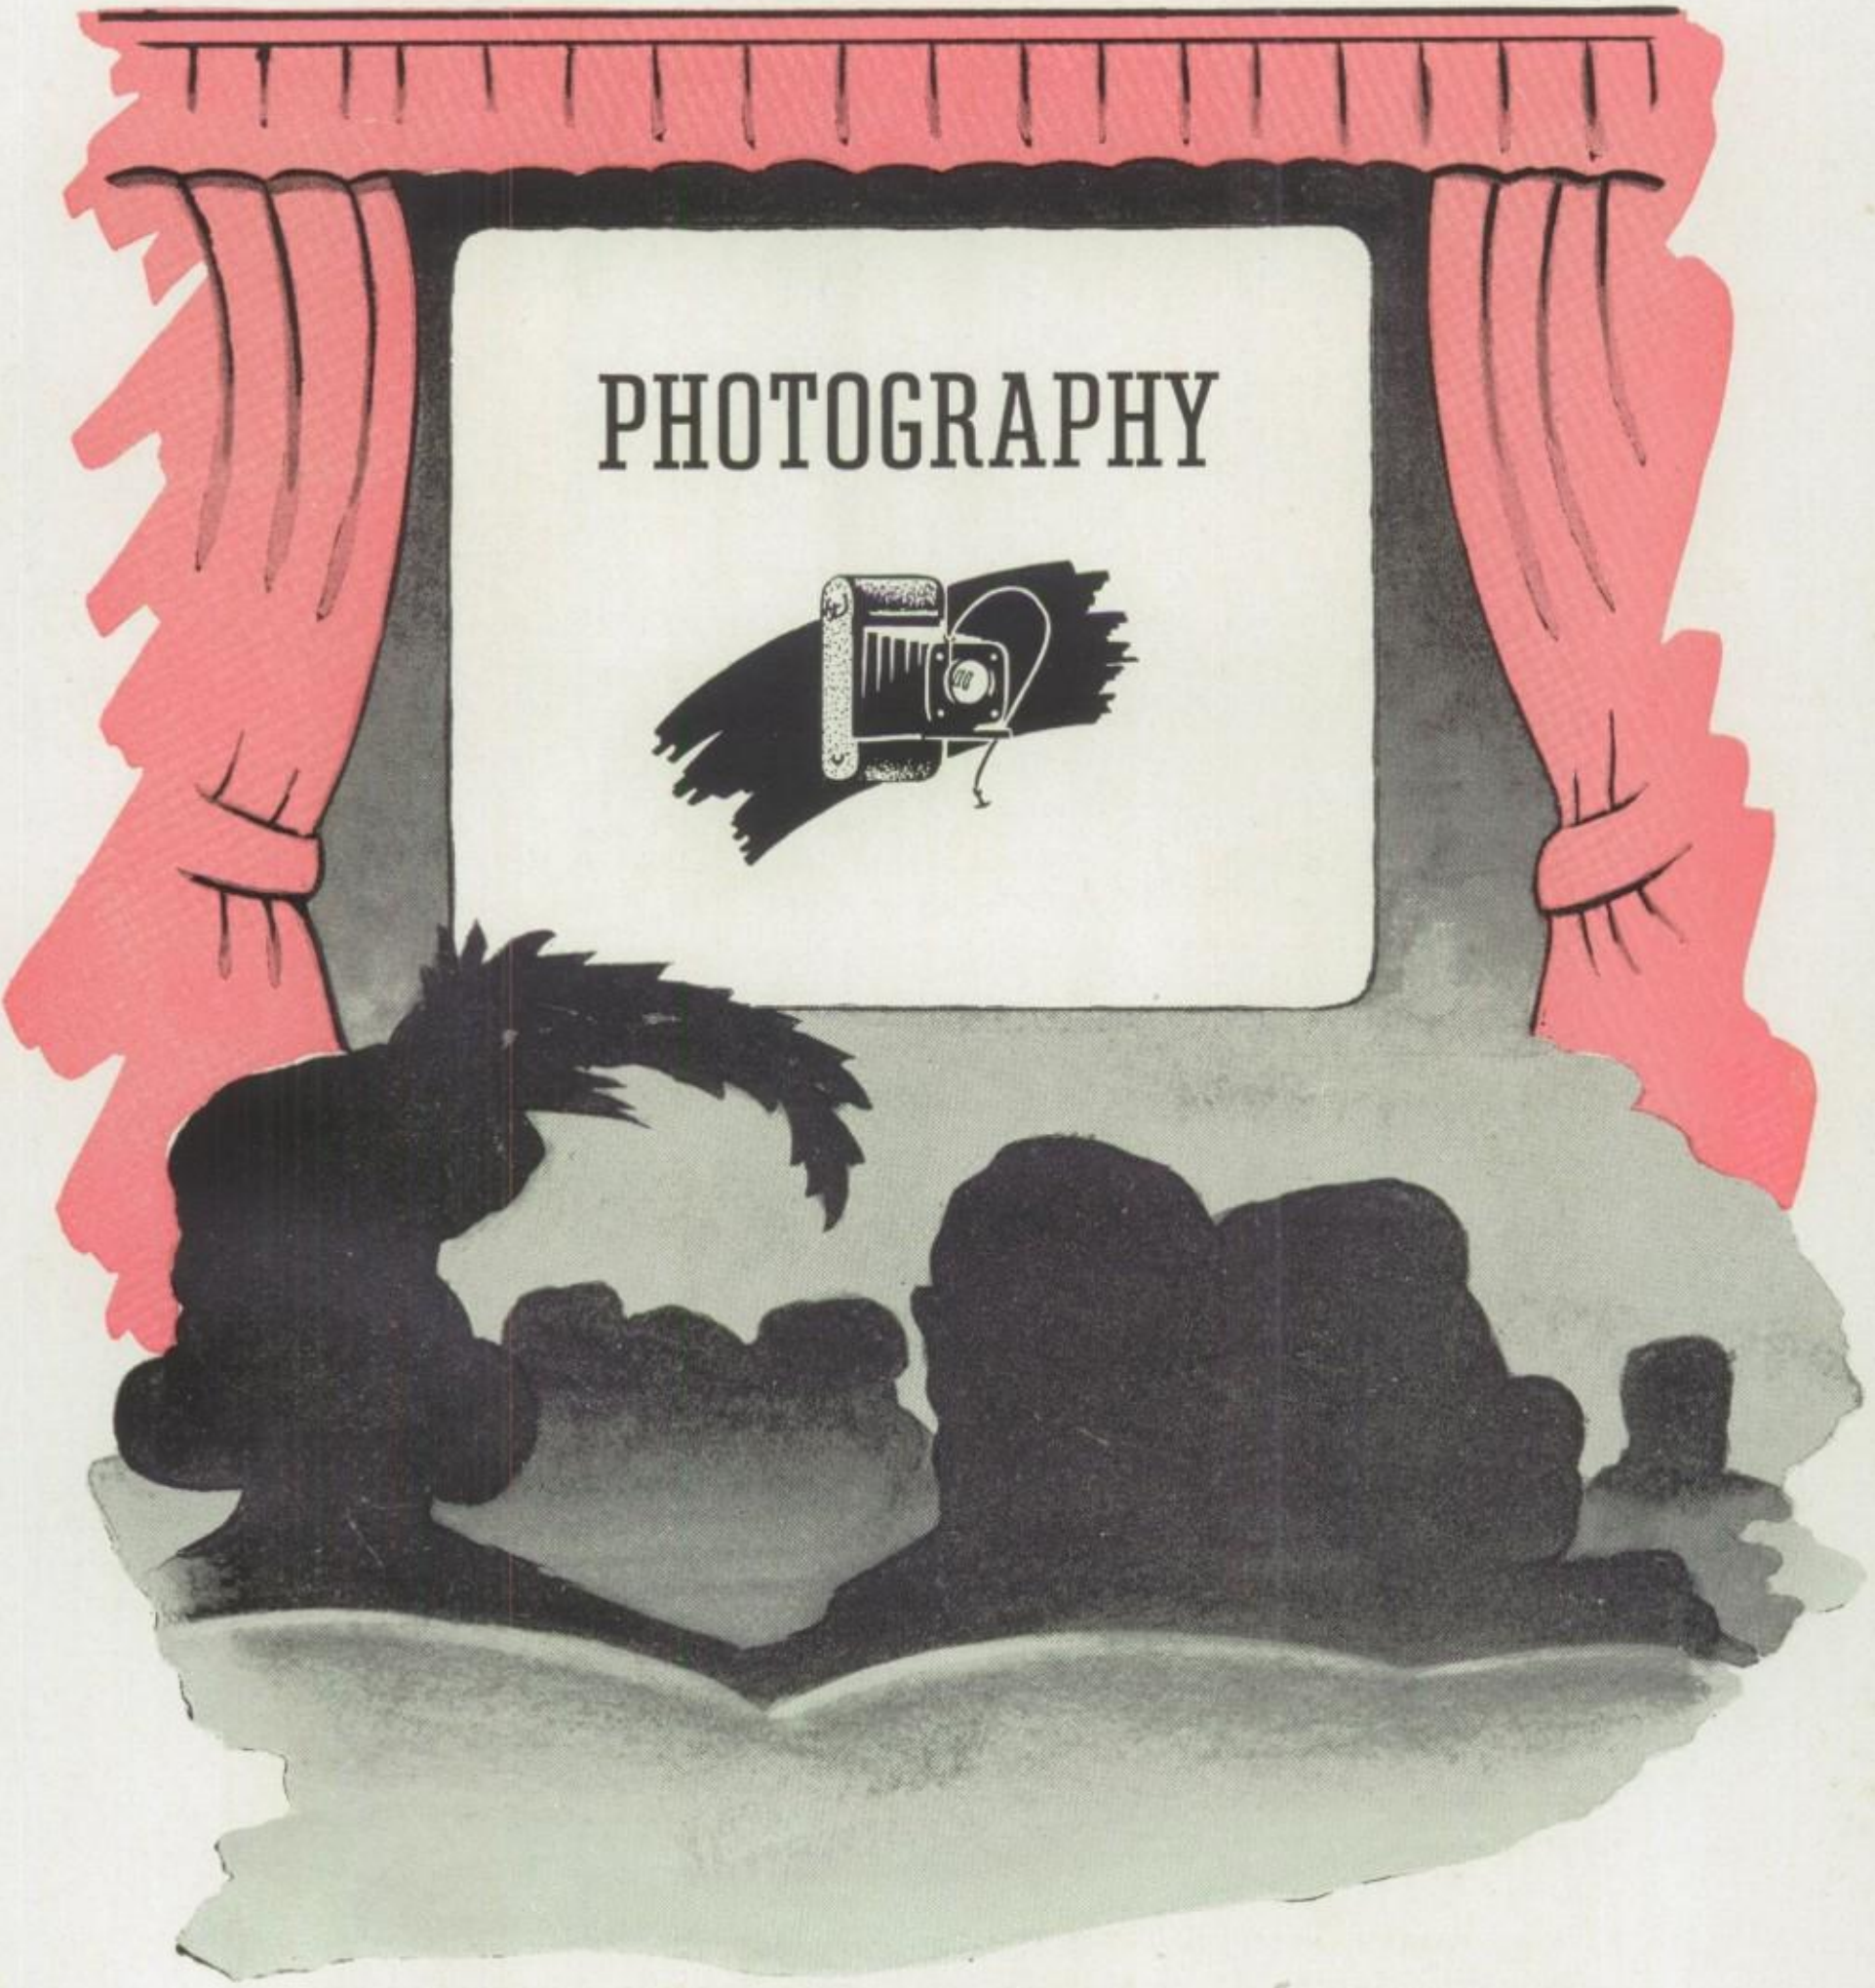

Been to the E.P. Canteen lately? If so, you must have seen the very good showing of sophomores there. This is true of all school activities.

In the past year, many sophomores have participated in assemblies; for instance, Deb Dolloff, who thinks boys definitely should have manners (at least, that's what she replied in one of the first assemblies of the year); also the Christmas assembly had a very good showing of sophomores with Marjie Kent, Don Steen, Lou Fascio, Dick Collins and Dave Riley.

And what about talent, you ask? Why in this class there is talent galore! Claire Manchester plays the piano beautifully. Esther Souza and Hope Campbell have both sung in assemblies, and very pleasingly, too. How about Florence Trinidad's dancing?

We are very sorry to have lost one of our cutest and best all-around sophomores, Mardy Fitzhugh, who is leaving us to move to Texas. Good luck always, Mardy.

Yes, by now you'll all agree that we certainly did come in with a bang; and that's just how we expect to leave good old East Providence High in 1948.

ACTIVITIES

ACT IV

Much to do about everything social, musical, and fraternal—the frosting on the luscious cake at Six Corners.

THE D. A. R. AWARD

At last Fortune has smiled upon East Providence's winner of the D.A.R. Award and bestowed upon her the state D.A.R. title.

For many years we have chosen our candidate for the Good Citizenship Award, but this is the first time that we have captured the state title. This is no reflection whatsoever upon our candidates, as the state award is made as the result of drawing lots by the winners from all the schools in the state. This drawing of lots was accomplished this year at a tea given by the D.A.R. on March 8.

Shirley Goff was the almost unanimous choice of seniors and faculty for this year's Good Citizen, and she admirably fulfills the requirements laid down by the D.A.R. An honor society member, she is a leader of the type of whom we are proud. She has participated in many extra-curricular activities, having been a member of the Bowling Club and the Swimming Club. Shirley was our class secretary during our junior year, and also a member of the nominating committee. She has been active in Ki-Hi-Tri during the last two years and one of the most dependable girls on the Townie staff, also for two years Shirley has been unfailingly reliable in all things; her ideals are high; in fact, she could well be called the Ideal High School Girl.

Apart from the D.A.R. requirements, Shirley has charm and a wealth of personality.

All hail to our Good Citizen of 1946!

THE ASSEMBLIES

The assemblies this year, under the direction of Mr. Howard C. Olsen, have been both interesting and educational. We have had serious and humorous programs. A committee of twenty-two was chosen by Mr. Olsen to help plan the assemblies. They are as follows: Diana Daubney, Rita McDonough, Helen Ravenell, Beverly Maurath, Janet French, Nancy Hopkins, Madeline Olson, Nancy Dewhirst, Lucy Place, Barbara Wood, Daniel Wood, Walter Gorman, Eleanor Semple, Caroline Decatur, Jean Fitzgerald, Louise Monteith, Shirley Vaughn, Madeline Silva, Deborah Smith, Paul Robinson, Henry Butts, and Norma Pearson.

Among the programs the following stand out. On September 19 there was a Civil Air Patrol program; on October 10 we recognized V.J. Day with eight seniors reading paragraphs from the Japanese Peace Treaty; on October 24 we witnessed an election campaign with speeches by the candidates for office of the senior class and their campaign managers; on November 7 the New York Herald Tribune Forum was presented; on December 5 six scenes from the senior play, "Junior Miss" were presented; on January 30 speeches were given by returned veterans; and on February 27 the election campaign was staged with speeches by the candidates for office of the junior class and their campaign managers.

Among student programs we have had several quizzes, a few movies and discussions among the students. On October 3 Mr. Olsen presented a hit assembly, "Noah Webster Says"; on October 31 a movie entitled "Know Your British Ally" was presented; on February 13, another movie was presented by Chief Murray, R.V., entitled "Navy Recruiting"; on November 21 the assembly program was a football rally in preparation for the Thanksgiving game; on December 12 the chorus presented a musical; and on January 16 students participated in debating.

THE TOWNIE

The TOWNIE, successor to the INFORMER, has just completed its second year of publication. It was originated by Miss Beatrice A. Smith, head of the English Department, in the fall of 1944 and taken up this year by Miss Gladys M. Hebden. The TOWNIE is a product of the journalism class.

It has a circulation of 1100 including the mailing list. In order to continue being self-supporting the TOWNIE has resorted to several means of making money, such as the sale of football programs, a football rally, and the presentation of two one-act plays.

Every month the class elects specific editors and special column writers, each doing his share of the work in his department.

The TOWNIE staff is as follows: Claire Benicki, Ralph Costa, Gloria Darling, Nancy Edmonds, Claire Evans, Shirley Fontes, Shirley Goff, Janet French, Walter Gorman, Connie Hunt, Joyce Jenkins, Lawrence Jodat, Robert John, Edward Libowitz, Rita McDonough, Louise Monteith, Madeline Olson, Rosalie Overdeep, Norma Pearson, Faith Shurtleff, Madeline Silva, Deborah Smith, Marcia Upham, Shirley Vaughn, Roberta White, Daniel Wood, Jean Wooley, Nancy Hopkins, Diana Daubney, Shiela Ballou, Edward Crowley, Kenneth Danielson, Patricia Dooley, Charlie McLaughlin, Jean Olson, Patricia Parker, Natalie Pfeiffe, Marilyn Phillips, Jane Riley, Jesse Rogers, Joan Stapleton, Shirley Stevens, James Whitaker, Marion Wilson, Ruth Wilson, Robert Wood, and Bruce Crook.

THE TOWNIE has received very favorable comment from other school newspapers, having been listed by two schools as one of the outstanding high school papers.

THE SENIOR PLAY

As our senior play, the class of 1946 presented "Junior Miss," by Jerome Chodorov and Joseph Fields, under the direction of Mr. Howard C. Olsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves, played by Frank Manchester and Helen Ravenell, along with sophisticated Lois (Rita McDonough), J. B. (Fred Barker), his daughter Ellen (June Johnson), and Uncle Willis (Richard Larson), suffered together under the wild, imaginative ideas of Judy and Fluffy, played by Jeanne Cahill and Faith Shurtleff. Jeanne was an adorable junior miss, having all the lovely characteristics of a typical teen-ager, plus all of the desire to direct the romances of others. Faith as Fluffy was a riot; she was typical of so many of us.

The whole Graves family would have been at a total loss without the one and only Hilda, portrayed by Nancy Dewhirst.

Not enough praise can be given to the stage crew, under the capable management of Tom Flynn. Miss Pickett, our class advisor, and her assistant, Gloria Darling, who were in charge of the business end of the play, also deserve our praise along with the property manager—Nancy Hopkins, Joyce Jenkins, and Madelyn Olson.

The entire play was done with extraordinary acting and we feel proud that our class was able to give such a distinctive performance.

THE CONTEST PLAY

Pawtucket East High School introduced the idea of a Drama Festival in New England in 1928. The first One-Act Play Contest at which eight schools competed was held in Pawtucket in 1928. Three years later twenty-one schools entered the Festival. Because of the increasing interest and growing number of competing schools, it was decided by the directors that the two best plays from each state should be given at the New England Festival.

"Ile," Eugene O'Neil's one-act play was selected for our 1946 presentation at the annual Drama Festival. This play directed by Mr. James Bates, had been presented in the 1929 contest and won first place in that year. Our school has won the State Contest with two other entries, the second being "Where the Cross is Made," also written by Eugene O'Neil and directed by Mr. Bates, and the third being the third act of "Sun-up," directed by Miss Alden.

"Ile" was directed by Mr. Howard Olsen and was given on April 5 and 6 at Brown University. Frank Manchester, Nancy Hopkins, Albert Pilon, Frank Swartwout, Fred Barker and Leon Carpenter, who took the parts of the characters in the play, gave excellent performances. The story depicts life aboard a whaling ship, "The Atlantic Queen," during the year 1895. Keeney (Frank Manchester), who is captain of the ship, takes his wife (Nancy Hopkins) and departs for the North for whaling. Mrs. Keeney becomes very downcast as their food gets low and the captain will not leave until they fill the boat with whale oil or "ile." She pleads with him to return home and she has just succeeded when the ice breaks. The captain then, disregarding his wife's entreaties, determines to stay until the ship is filled with oil. Mrs. Keeney goes insane and plays the organ furiously as the curtain falls.

Some of the other schools participating this year were Pawtucket East, Aldrich, Lockwood, Classical, Pawtucket West, Central.

THE LIBRARY AUXILIARY

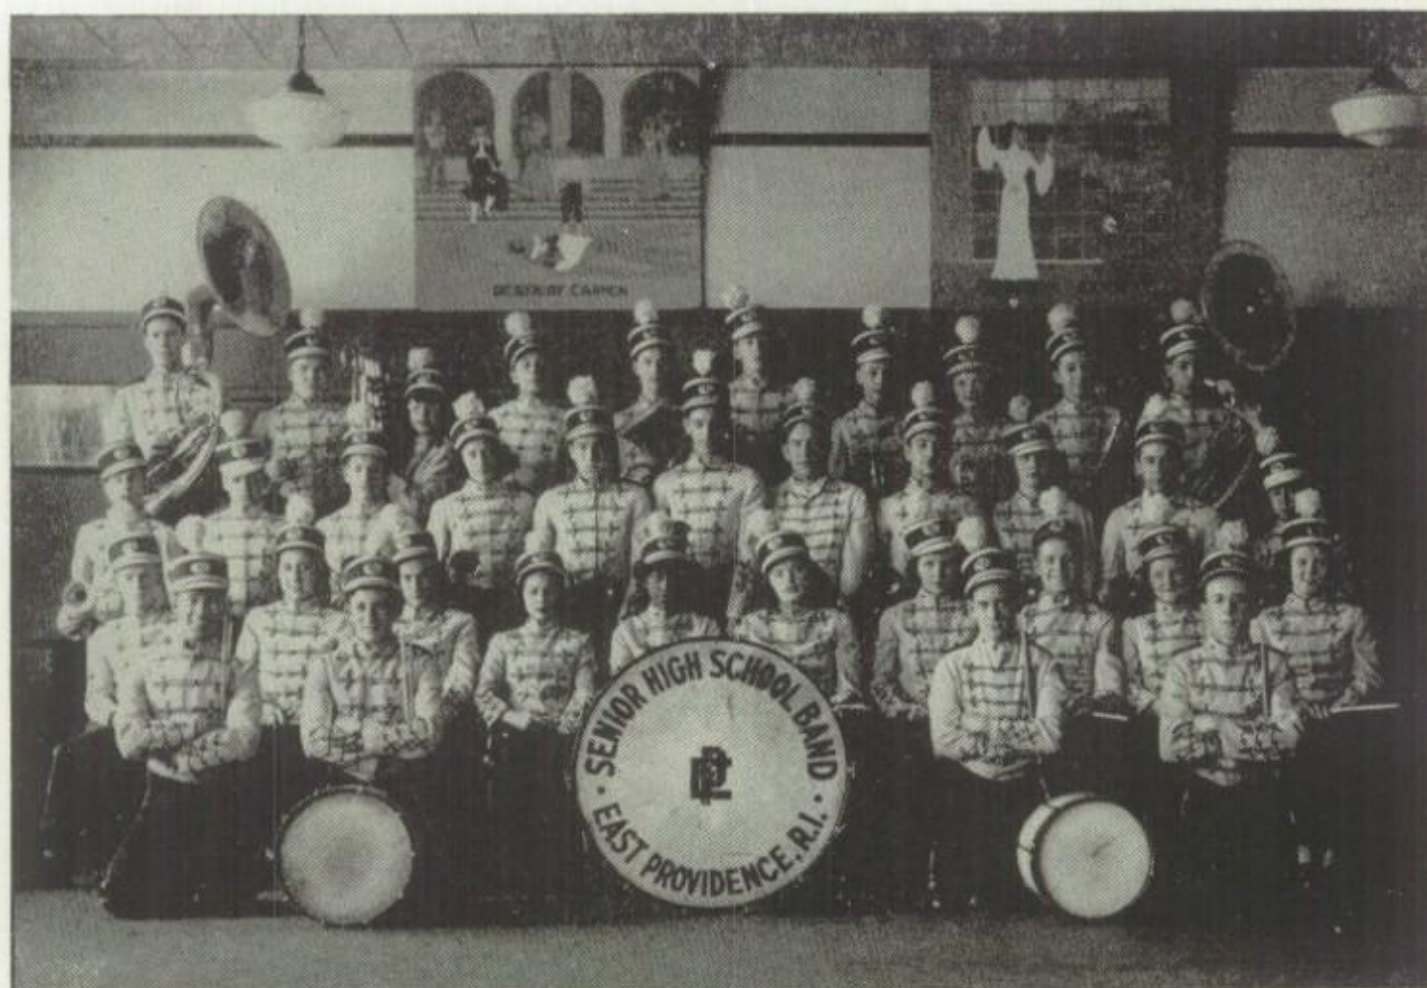

The Library Auxiliary was originated to serve a double purpose; first, to train students in work pertaining to the library and thus possibly to open to them a career in library work; second, to organize a group of students to work in the library, thereby keeping the library open at all times, something which, of course, is too much for one person.

This year the Auxiliary has a membership of twenty-three students, all girls. The Auxiliary does not intend to be a girls' organization, but in the last few years the boys have been very much occupied with preinduction courses.

Every Tuesday during the home room period the group receives from Miss Hill, the librarian, instructions pertaining to the library. Each girl donates at least two periods a week to serve in the library. Her work varies from charging and discharging books to repairing magazines.

Several times a year the Auxiliary celebrates the holidays by having a small party. Officers elected for this term are president, Rosalie Overdeep; vice president, Beverly Brown; secretary, Emma Viera; and treasurer, Margaret Ferreira.

THE BAND

The entire school was very happy this year to welcome back our band leader, Stephen Farnum of the faculty, from the Navy, where he served for two years. It seems more like old times to have Mr. Farnum leading the band which he did so much to build.

During Mr. Farnum's absence the band was directed by Mr. Edward A. Denish, the director of the Brown University Band. We should like to give our sincere thanks to Mr. Denish for a job well done. We hope that he enjoyed being with us as much as we enjoyed having him.

Mr. Farnum returned in February just in time to direct the band in its annual spring concert which was held in the Central Junior High gymnasium on May third. Proceeds from the Band Concert were used to replace old band uniforms and also to provide transportation for the band to the various Music Festivals.

Many members of our East Providence Band were entered in the State Festival of Music which was held at Newport, and later in the season several members played at the New England Festival.

Those of us who are members of the band feel that we are fortunate in having the opportunity to play in festivals such as those mentioned and also fortunate in the very excellent training we have received here in school.

We wish the band continued success in future years.

THE HI-TRI

This year the Hi-Tri has been active in helping the war effort. In November Junior Red Cross gift boxes were filled for the children in Europe. In January the girls packed baskets for army camps. During January also ten girls served as waitresses at a supper given by the Parent Teacher Association.

The new girls joining the Hi-Tri this year had to be initiated before their membership in the Hi-Tri was accomplished. The initiation was held at the school in the evening. Later a tea was given for the new members and their mothers.

Regular meetings were held every other Wednesday with programs planned by the girls. A committee of four girls was chosen to plan the weekly program.

In March Miss Pickett, our director, took a group of the Hi-Tri girls to the Y.M.C.A. for a lesson in finger painting. Those who went found this new art a very fascinating one.

Each meeting of the Hi-Tri throughout the year has been well and carefully planned and has proved very interesting.

Among the social events were a Sadie Hawkins dance, which was held at the school and a Christmas Formal at the Goff Memorial in Rehoboth.

With Miss Dorothy Pickett as our advisor, and with Gloria Darling as president, Claire Evans as vice-president, Jeanne Cahill as secretary, and Jean Fitzgerald as treasurer, we have had a very successful year.

THE KI-HI-TRI

The faculty advisor of the Ki-Hi-Tri is Miss Harriet Goff, and the officers for the year are as follows: president, Joyce Ring; vice-president, Mary Medeiros; secretary, Marilyn Stake; and treasurer, June Theroux.

The first dance of the year was a Hallowe'en dance held at the Seekonk Gun Club, attended by an exceptionally large number of students.

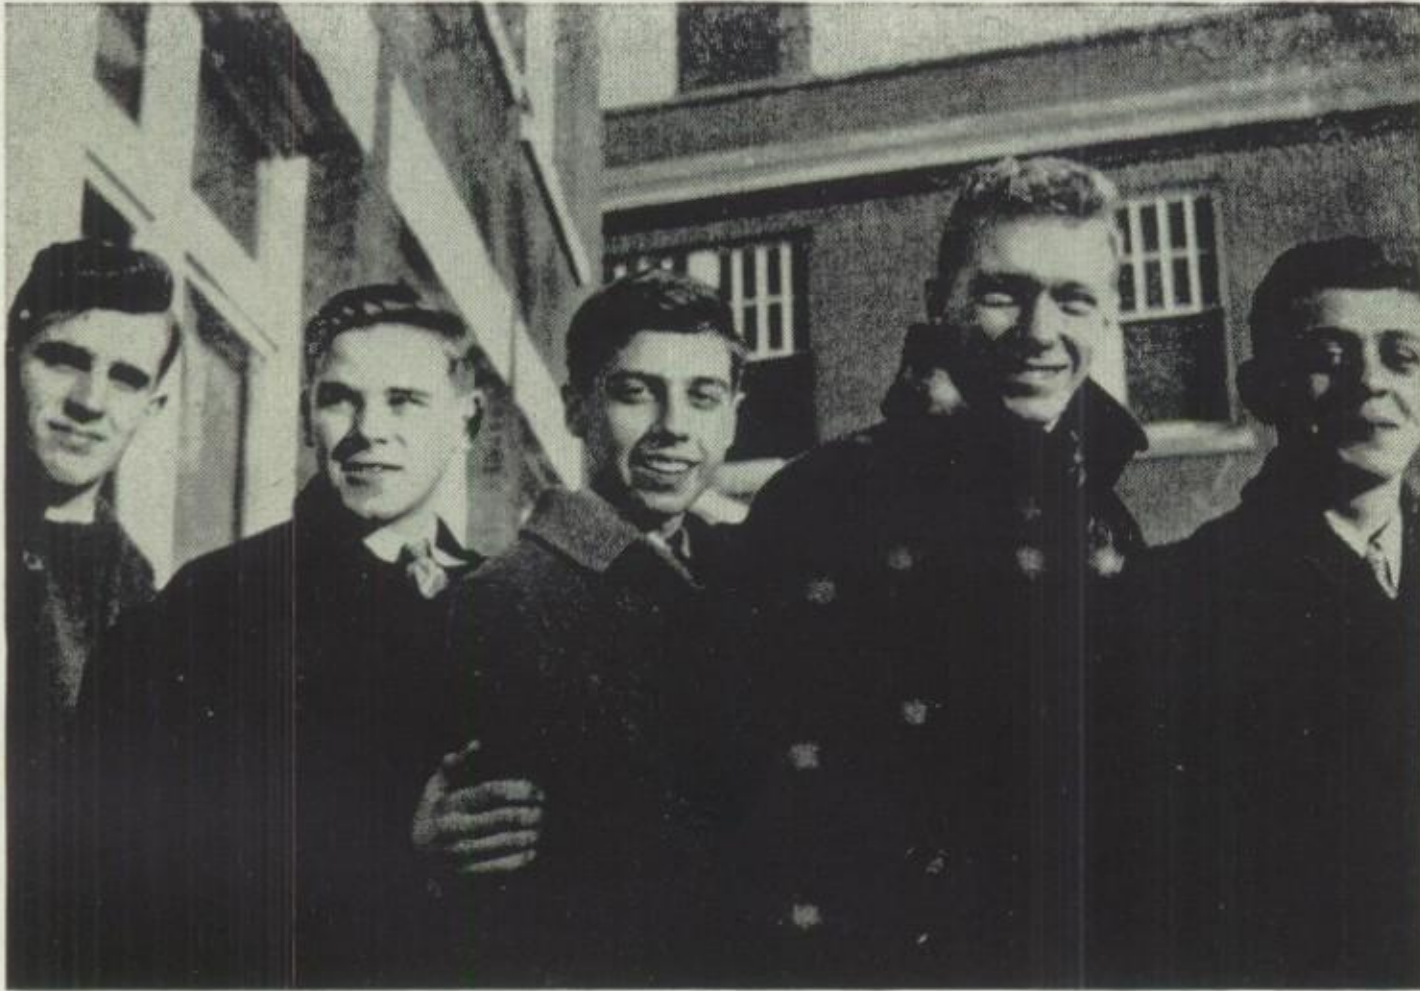

Initiation of new members took place this year during school hours. Each girl desiring to join the Ki-Hi-Tri was required to attend school wearing a patched skirt, old shoes, and a bright colored bow in her hair.

In December each girl donated a day for the children in the Charles V. Chapin Hospital. December also found the girls making scrap books for the children in the Rhode Island Hospital.

The members of the Ki-Hi-Tri have always been active in community projects. They filled many gift boxes for the Junior Red Cross to send to Europe. Many of the Ki-Hi-Tri girls served the Parent Teacher Association as waitresses at a supper given by the association.

Regular meetings have been held on alternate Fridays throughout the year. Girls have been appointed a week in advance to plan special programs. All of the meetings have been interesting and well planned and they certainly have been appreciated by the members.

THE HI-Y

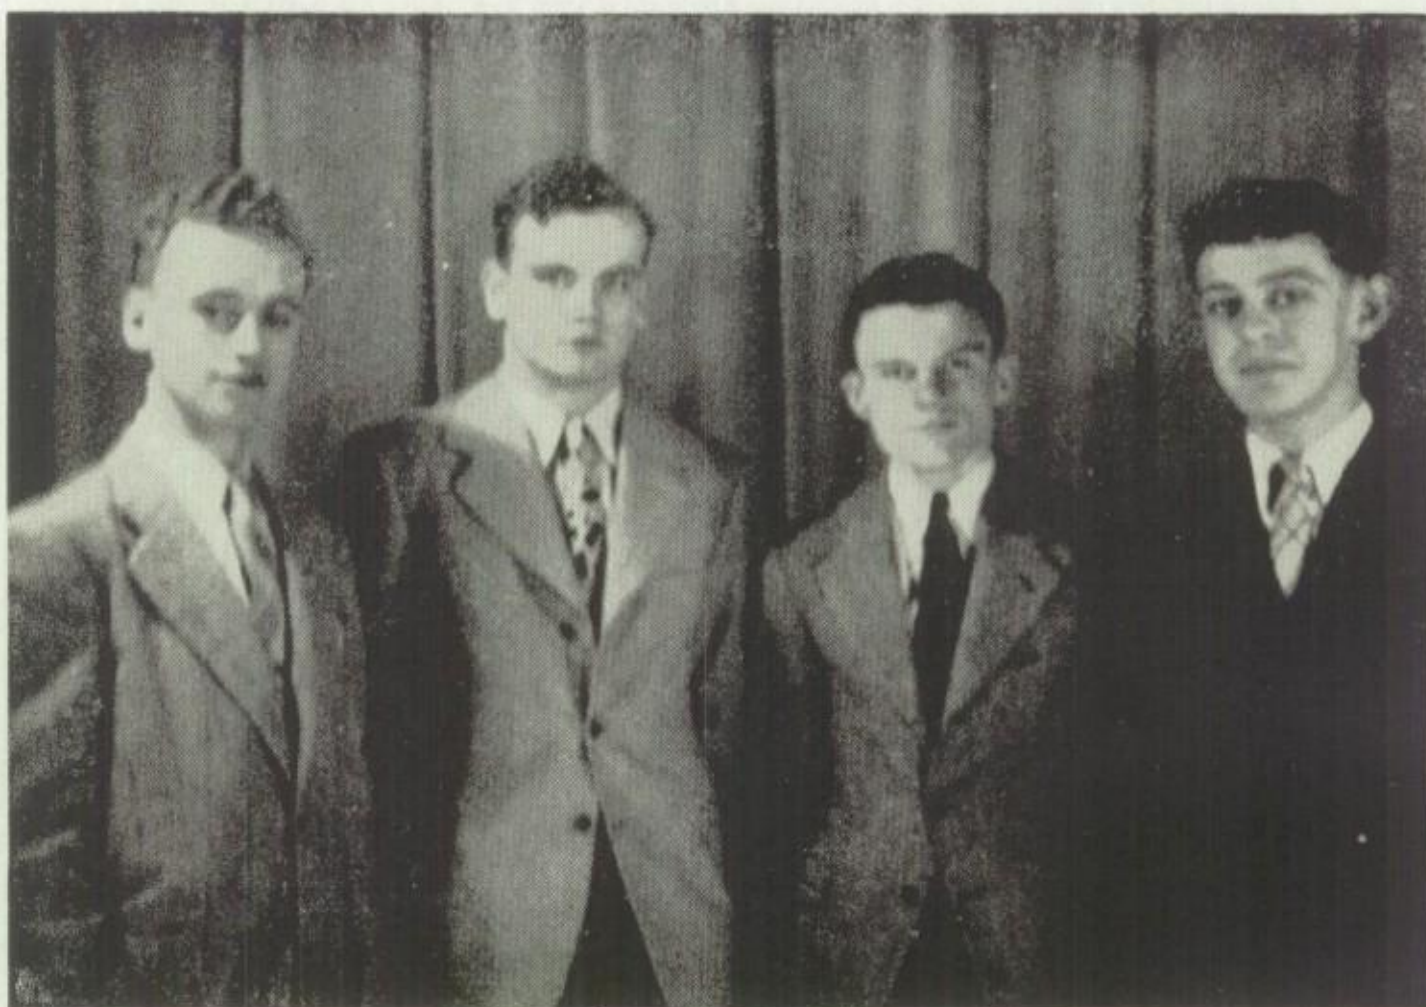

The East Providence Hi-Y enjoyed the most successful year in its history during 1945-46. The membership was the largest ever, and the year's program was exceedingly interesting. Throughout the year, the monthly meetings at the Y were the highlights because of the varied programs presented. The East Providence club also had the pleasure and honor of inducting the memberships of the Aldrich and Gorton Hi-Y clubs as a service project.

The officers of the 1945-46 club were as follows: Henry Butts, president; Gilbert Bulley, vice-president; Richard Larsson, treasurer; Albert Pilon, secretary, and Stephen Hopkins, chaplain. During the course of the year, Paul Nelson was elected to help Pilon with the secretarial work.

The Hi-Y cooperated with the Hi-Tri this year in various ways. The club enjoyed this working together and hopes to continue the policy in the future. Those who leave the club this year via graduation, extend their best wishes to those left for the continued success of the club in the coming year.

THE MODEL CONGRESS

At the eighth Rhode Island High School Model Congress, East Providence was represented by Fred Barker and Frank Manchester, Senators, and Albert Pilon and Frank Swartwout, Representatives. The Congress was held at Rhode Island State College, Kingston.

Under the direction of Mr. Howard Olsen, faculty advisor, the group registered at Quinn Hall. After a welcoming address given by Dr. Carl R. Woodward, President of State College, the Senate and House convened in Quinn Hall.

In the Senate Frank Manchester presented a bill which would recommend the establishment of an International Police Force to the UNO. Fred Barker presented the negative. After a vigorous, fiery debate the bill was defeated.

Frank Swartwout presented a bill in the House which called for the turning over of atomic bomb secrets to an International Commission. Albert Pilon argued the negative which resulted in a close 7-6 rejection after a short, heated debate.

Both houses adjourned and the delegates had luncheon in Lippitt Hall, a fact which was appreciated by all. After lunch the delegates went back to Quinn Hall to hear the criticisms on the debate. Frank Manchester received high praise for his staunch defense of his bill. Albert Pilon and Frank Swartwout were highly commended for their steadfast, energetic arguing. Following this meeting the delegates were taken on a tour of the campus which ended at the Union where refreshments were served.

All of the comments revealed the fact that the delegates from East Providence had done a splendid piece of work and were well worthy of the praise they received.

THE CHEER LEADERS

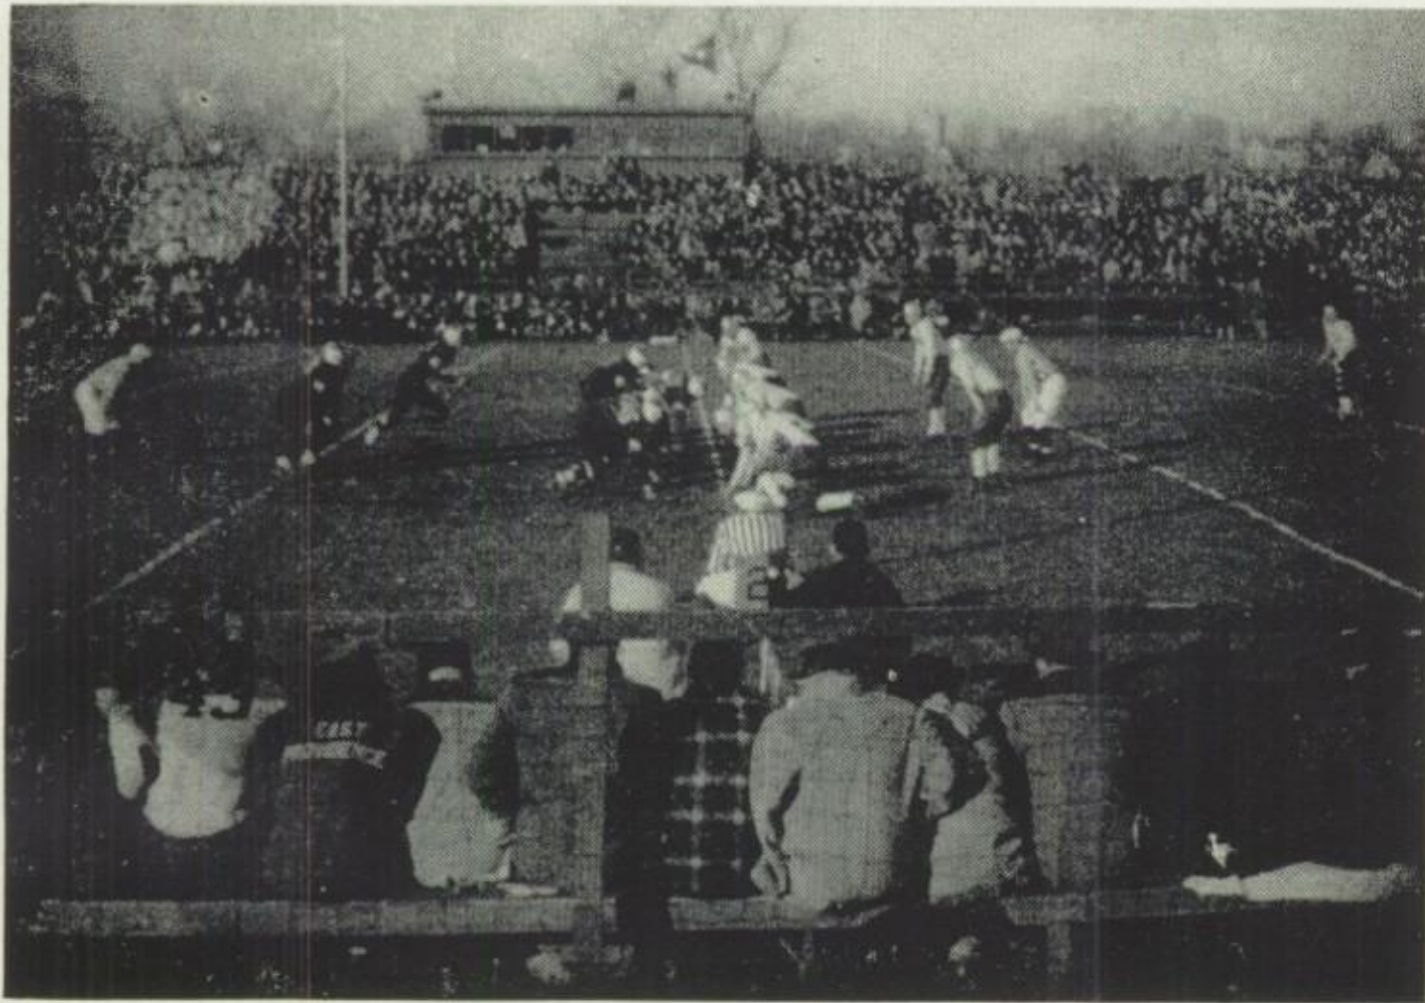

When September, 1945, rolled around and the little sophomores advanced to big juniors, the time was ripe for junior girls with athletic ability and love of sports to vie for places on the cheer leaders' squad. The first night they were called out, forty junior girls applied. They were divided into groups and taught the fundamentals of cheer leading by the three senior leaders. By the next night, some had dropped out voluntarily and others were voted out. Each night the number decreased until there were twelve girls remaining for the final test.

The fatal moment arrived. Each girl had to go before the senior cheer leaders and do all the cheers that she had been taught. After criticisms by the seniors, the final vote was cast and five juniors were chosen to swell the number of cheer leaders to eight.

These girls were chosen for their looks, their personality, and their cheering ability.

The senior cheer leaders are captain, Hope Sherman, Mary Medeiros and Madeline Olson. The juniors elected are Betty Carlson, Nancy Christopher, Joyce Ring, Marilyn Stake and Joan Stapleton.

FOOTBALL

East Providence High's 1945 football team got off to a good start by beating Durfee High 7-0. A week later, on September 22, they did it again by overpowering New Bedford 12-0. Then, on September 29, a scrappy St. Raphael team handed our boys a 14-0 setback. But we soon re-entered the winning column by subduing Pawtucket West 12-0. On October 13 the team made the long trip to Norwich, Connecticut, and was defeated 13-6 by the Norwich Free Academy eleven.

Our first league game, with Mount Pleasant, on October 20 ended in a 0-0 deadlock. Then we handily squelched Hope with a 28-0 score. Next, Central's powerful squad defeated our boys 13-0. On November 10 Cranston just managed to shade the Red and White 13-12. The Thanksgiving Day game, with our traditional rivals, La Salle, climaxed the season when the Townies, playing a wonderful defensive game, held the Smith-Hillers scoreless except for a five-minute period which gave La Salle a hard-won 13-0 victory.

Those who played excellent football throughout the season were Captain Schifino, Bill McCombe, who was placed on the All-State team, Whitaker, Bob McCombe, Johnson, Travers, Sollitto, Britto, Barr, McLaughlin, Crowley, Sarkisian, and Collins.

HOCKEY

The East Providence hockey sextet showed itself capable of playing a really good game. The team lost to La Salle, Mt. St. Charles, Hope, Cranston and Central; but the fellows gained experience and learned teamwork. The Red and White's first victim was Mt. Pleasant, 2-0. Then the Townies smothered Classical 8-0. Next Burrillville was set back 2-1. In the last regular game our boys blanked North Providence 4-0.

In the playoffs East Providence was matched against Hope in a two-game total goals series. Hope took the first match 4-2 and the second game was a 3-3 deadlock.

Pete McBride was placed on the All-State team; and Ralph Costa, who had been ineligible to play the first six games, was selected for the All-State second team. Every other regular received honorable mention.

We all feel that with several of our regular players coming back, East Providence will have another fine team next year.

BASKETBALL

The East Providence High basketball team won nine out of twenty games this season. Mr. Good turned out a fast, hard-fighting club, even though every member of last year's championship team graduated.

Although the Townie basketballers were set back by several of the more experienced, taller, heavier teams in the league, they did chalk up some impressive victories. Among the Red and White's wins were those over La Salle 30-29, Cranston 27-25, Mt. Pleasant 48-44, the Brown J.V's 51-44, De La Salle 53-48, and Central 25-19.

The first of three players to join the team in the middle of the season was Sol Guglielmo, a CYO player, whose long shots thrilled every E.P. rooter. Then John Sweeney and Gus Pearson, who had previously been ineligible, put new life into the team and sparked many a fast play.

Capt. Red Sollitto, one of the team's old standbys, played well all season. Ducky Spellman shone on the defense. Other regulars were Rollie Pearson, Hank Butts, and Fred Sollitto.

With several fellows coming back, there is every reason to believe that Mr. Good will develop another good team next year which will carry on the best of East Providence traditions.

WRESTLING

The Townie matmen had an excellent season this year. They won eleven out of thirteen dual meets and finished second in the state meet.

After beating Mt. Pleasant, our traditional rivals 18-16, the E.P. wrestlers downed Hope 35-5 and later 33-5, Central 26-10, Moses Brown 33-3, Tabor Academy 26-13, Worcester Academy 37-3, and the Brown ROTC unit 27-10. Then Central shaded us 21-20, and Mt. Pleasant set us back 23-11. But we then pinned the Harvard J.V.'s 25-12, Country Day 28-10, and Admiral Bullard Academy 28-10.

In the state meet we had 29 points to Mt. Pleasant's 31. Central, a close third, had 27. In that meet David Kinnear won the 118 lb. crown, as John Hendricks did at 126 and Fred Barker at 165. Jim Whitaker and Ray Steen were finalists in the 145 lb. and heavyweight classes, respectively.

Much credit should be given to Coach Ralph Anderton for his expert instruction and for his arranging a full, well-rounded schedule.

Regulars were Stone, Pilon, and Gorman, alternates in the 110 lb. class, Capt. Frank Manchester and Kinnear in the 118 lb. class, Hendricks in the 126 lb. class, Whitaker in the 145 lb. class, Boyd, Karlsson, and Travers (who received a dislocated elbow in the Mt. Pleasant meet) in the 155 lb. class, Barker in the 185 lb. class, Steen and Cushing in the 175 lb. class, and Barker and Steen in the heavyweight class.

CROSS-COUNTRY

The Townie cross-country squad fared well last fall and won two dual meets and their race in the Cross-Country Carnival. Unlike other sports, in cross-country the team whose total of their first five men finishing is lower than that of their opponents wins.

The E.P. Harriers, in their first meet, on October 5, were overcome by Barrington, 21-34; but on October 15 they came back and smothered Cranston, 17-38, taking six out of seven first places. Then the Red and White shaded Hope, 27-28, on the new Pierce Field Course. In the Carnival, on October 25, the Townies outsped North Providence and Lockwood to win with the lowest score of 36 points. For this victory the team was awarded the Fletcher P. Burton Memorial Trophy which was presented by the Moses Brown School. This is our first cross-country trophy. The Red and White captured fourth place in the State meet on November 3, with 75 points. In this meet Captain Bob Gorman and Bob Hunt captured third and seventh places respectively.

Boys forming the backbone of the team this year were Captain Bob Gorman, who was placed on the All-State Team, Hunt, Ferreira, Carey, Slade, Bump, and Walter Gorman.

TRACK

The indoor track team at East Providence is handicapped because it has no indoor track. But in spite of this fact, Leon Carpenter and Mickey Britto captured places in the 40-yard and 300-yard dashes respectively in the State Indoor Track Meet at Marvel Gymnasium.

Veterans of last year's team who performed in outdoor track this season are Carpenter in the sprints, Bob Gorman in the mile, Lou Sarkisian in the broad jump, and Fred Barker in the pole vault. Britto and Dick Collins, both sophomores, were promising tracksters in the sprints.

A great loss to this year's team was that of Norm Crevier, who entered the Coast Guard last summer. You may remember that Norm had been 220-yard low hurdle champion for two years, and sprint champion for one year.

Several dual meets were held this year at Pierce Stadium, and the team also participated in the State Relay Carnival, the Kingston State Meet, and the R. I. Interscholastic Meet at Brown Field.

BASEBALL

The Townie nine welcomed the return of Coach Clem Fascitelli, who was this year discharged from the Navy after two years' service.

As the Crimson goes to press before the baseball season is under-way, we can speak of baseball only as it looks to us at the beginning of the season.

Coach Fascitelli faces the task of building a new club. Virtually all of the members of the Class A championship team of last year have graduated. The two regulars left are Anthony "Skippy" Schifino and Lou Sarkisian. Both men played outfield positions last year. From observation at practice sessions, there is a distinct possibility that either or both may be moved to an infield post.

Ed Libowitz, Norm Gagnon, Ken Danielson and Fred Kessler saw limited service last year. Libowitz and Gagnon are out for the pitching position and Danielson is a catcher; Kessler is an infielder.

From a squad of interested but less experienced men, Mr. Fascitelli will have to make his choice. At this date no starting club has been decided upon. It is probable that the 1946 squad will consist of pitchers Libowitz, Gagnon, Sprague and Sousa; catcher, either Ken Danielson or Jim Whitaker; first baseman, Ernie Agresti or Dick Wilson; second baseman, Rollie Pearson or John Sweeney; shortstop, Ray Danielson or Fournier; third baseman, Sarkisian or Gus Pearson; outfield, Lou Falguerra, Whitaker, Sarkisian, Schifino, Guglielmo, or O'Brien.

The baseball season this year has an early beginning, starting on April 16 with Central at East Providence. This allows only ten days of real full-squad practice.

St. Raphael's, Pawtucket West, and Rogers are newcomers to Class A baseball this year.

Coach Fascitelli promises that he will have a team that will be in there fighting—win or lose. It will be a team of which the school can be proud.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Girls' sports at East Providence do not receive much publicity, but, nevertheless, we do have them. The most popular of these is bowling. There are three clubs: the Senior Club under the supervision of Miss Gilbert, the Junior with Miss Goff as supervisor, and the Sophomore under Mr. Burke. The senior officers are president, Hope Jansen; secretary, Shirley Goff; treasurer, Jean Fitzgerald. They bowl, some forty strong, every week on Monday at the Bowling Academy, and turn out such high scorers as Martha McCoart, Jacqueline Fournier, and June Johnson.

The Juniors, who bowl every Tuesday, chose as their officers Beverly Snow, president; Olive Hawksley, vice-president; Alma Salve, secretary; and Marilyn Barney, treasurer.

The Sophomores first organized with Miss Russell, then with Mrs. Tuttle; but with the departure of these two, they finally secured Mr. Burke as their advisor for the rest of the year. They bowl every Thursday afternoon, and their officers are president, Marjorie Kent; vice-president, Eileen Perrin; treasurer, Shirley Smith; and secretary, Constance Carey.

Once a year a tournament is held, in which the six top scorers from each club compete. This year the Seniors won, the Sophomores placed second, and the Juniors third.

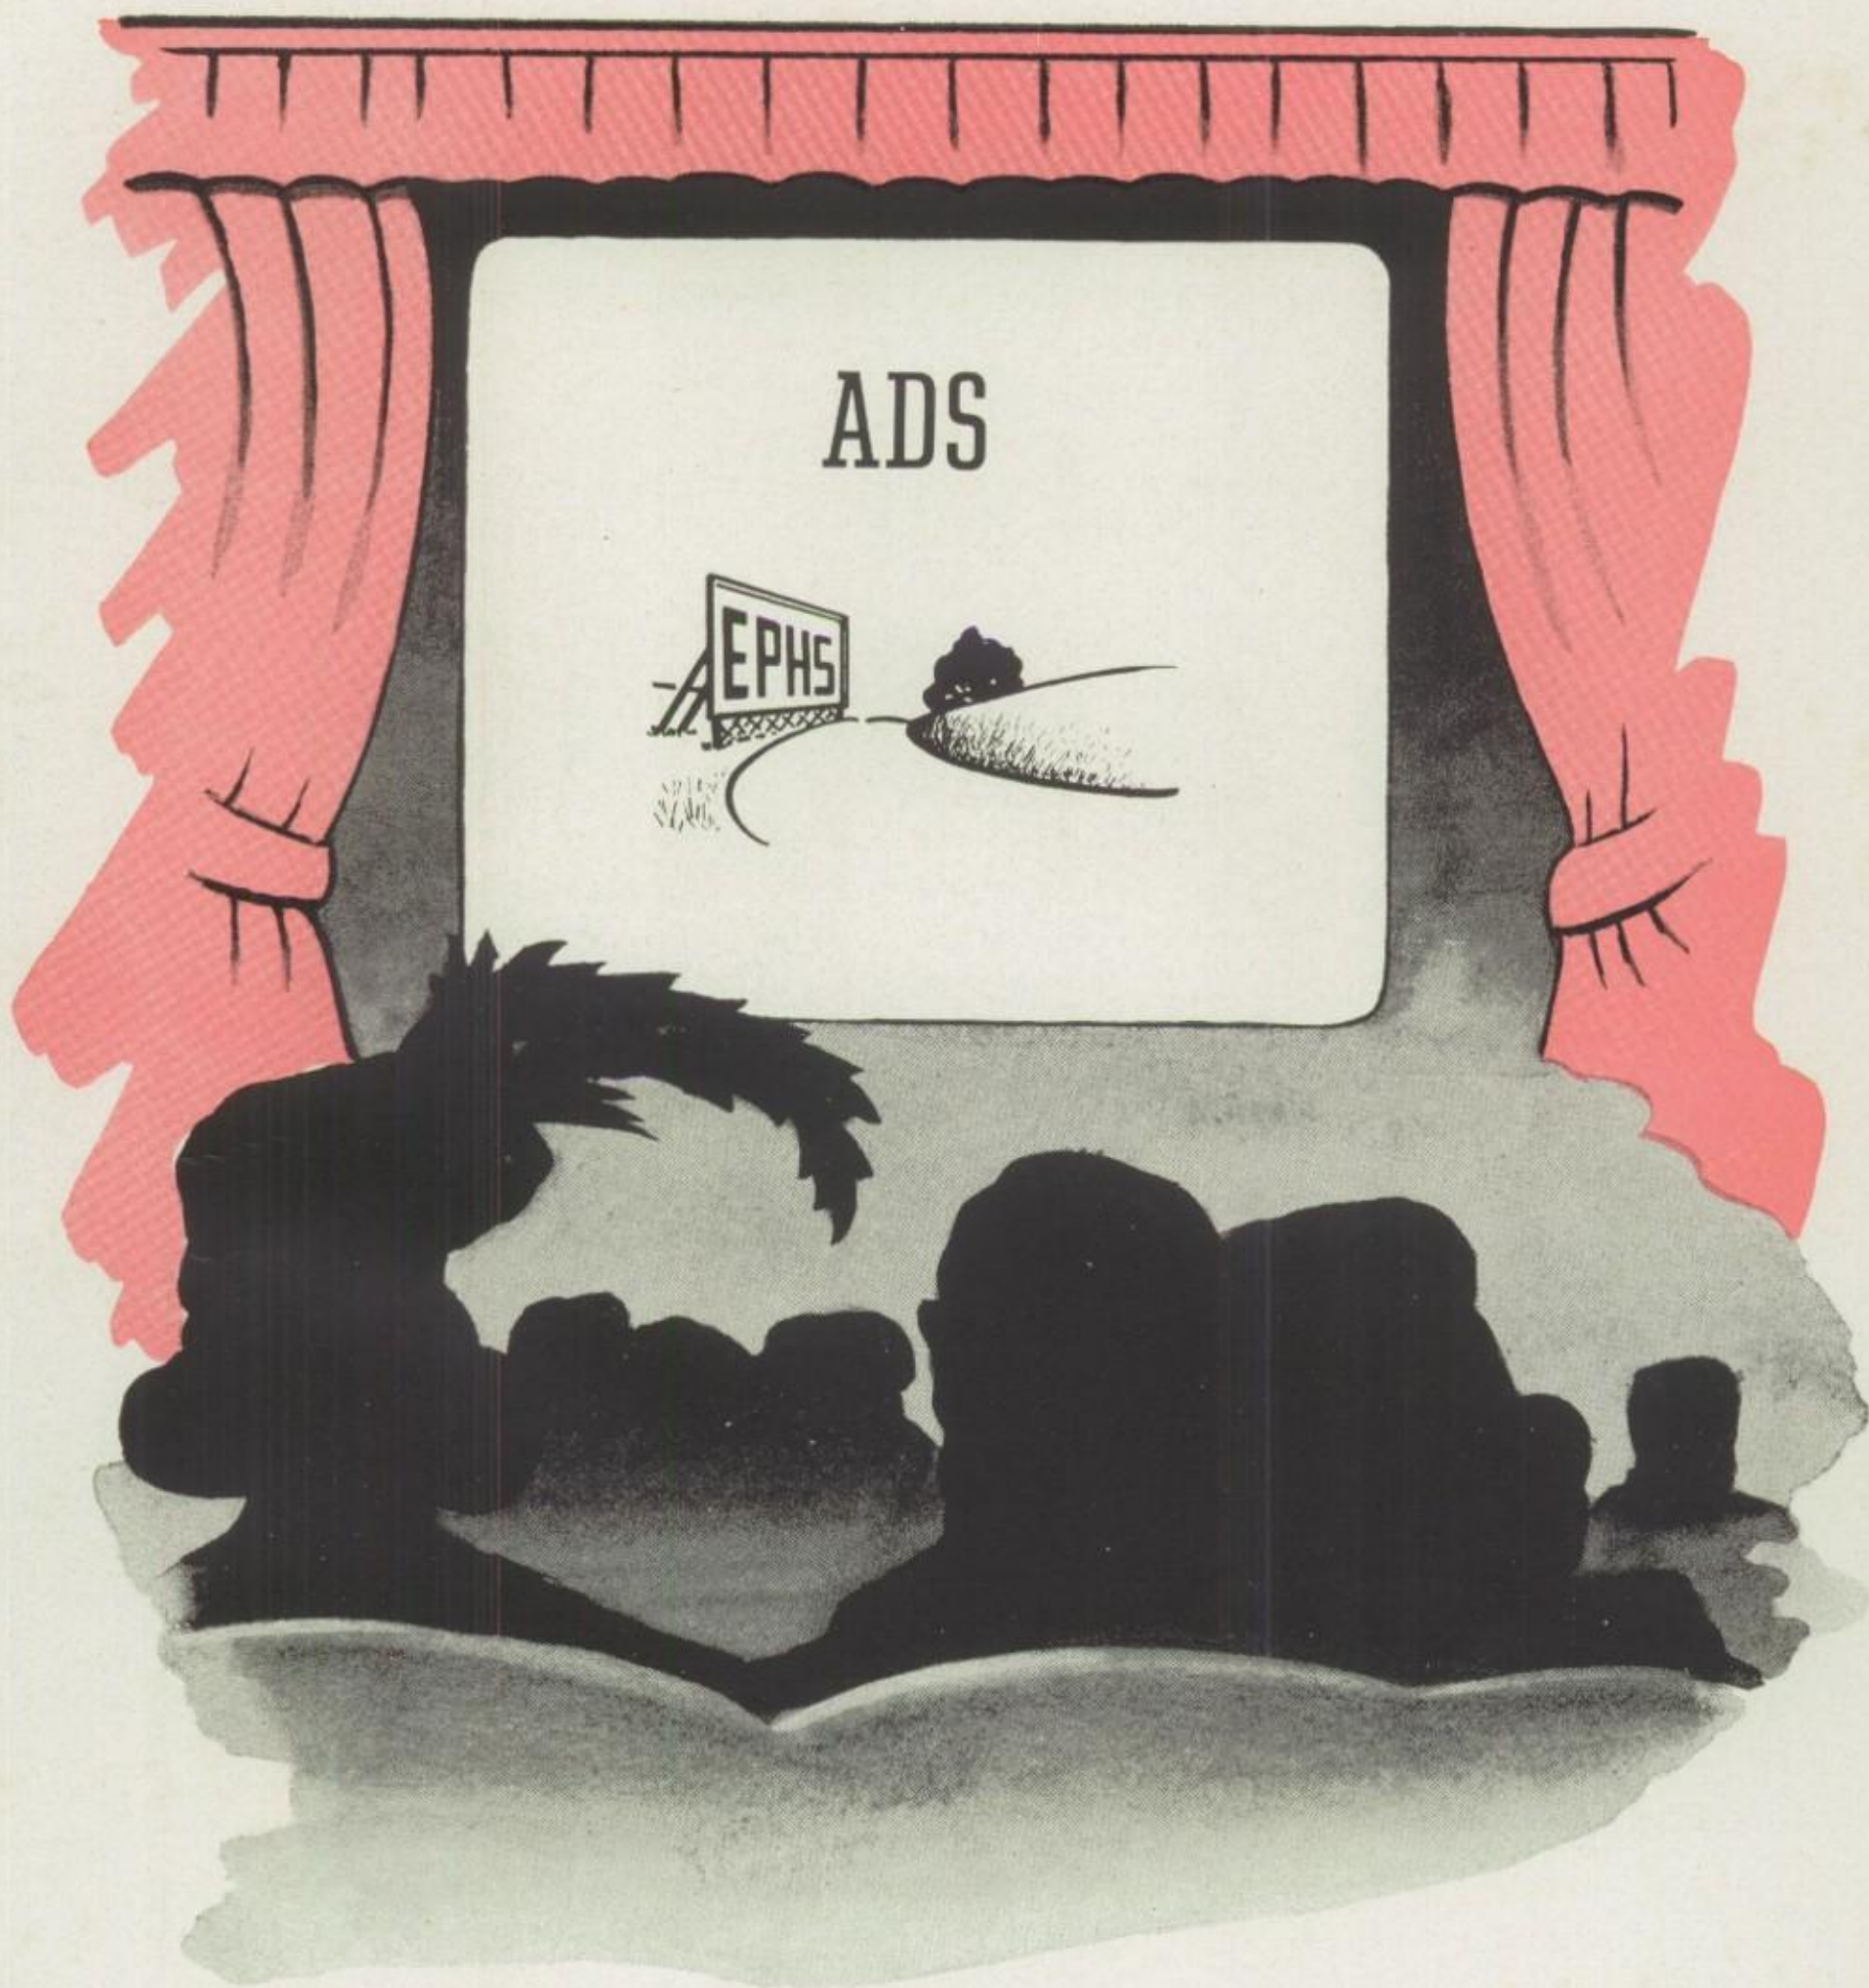

For the first time, the girls' bowling clubs from East Providence entered a national tournament. On April fifth, at the North Main Street Bowling Alley, eight senior, six junior, and six sophomore girls participated in the National Victory Tournament. The results of this tournament have not yet been published, but all our girls did a fine job.

Basketball, too, has a place in the girls' sports program. This year five sophomore, two junior, and two senior teams were organized.

The sophomore teams played each other until all except one team were eliminated, and the junior and senior teams did likewise. Then the remaining sophomore and junior teams played, and the juniors were eliminated. On March 8 the seniors defeated the sophomores 19-17 in the finals. Standout players for the sophomores were Norma Anderson, Beverly Murray, Marie Bragga, and Shirley Smith; for the juniors, Betty Sharp and Nona Jodat, and for the seniors, Dolores Fischer, Deborah Smith, and Doris Karibian.

Last fall, fifty girls joined the swimming club. On every Wednesday afternoon, from four until five, these girls swam at Hodgeman Pool. If the pool had been obtainable this spring, the swimming club would have reorganized. When the new East Providence High School is built, the addition of a swimming pool would greatly aid this club.

The girls' baseball teams have not yet organized, but there is much material for them, and the competition should be stiff. These teams will use a schedule similar to the basketball schedule.

ACT VI—FINALE

And here we salute our many friends and patrons for their support of the Crimson, an institution in the lives of young East Providence-ites and their community.
